

GOD'S MISSION TOGETHER

Global Ecumenical Partnerships welcomes you and invites you to join in forming meaningful and sustainable partnerships across denominations, faiths and cultures to restore relationships with one another, with God and with creation.

"In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage…to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace." – "A Brief Statement of Faith," lines 65, 66, 71.

The work of GEP is clear:
bring people together, tend the relationships, and let local discernment set the next faithful step.

- Partnership
- Equity
- Faithful ministry rooted in presence
- Relational accompaniment
- Continued listening as we build forward

To learn more, visit pcusa.org/gep or email:
Carlton.Johnson@pcusa.org
Cheryl.Barnes@pcusa.org
Ellen.Sherby@pcusa.org

Global Ecumenical Partnerships
A Ministry of Presbyterian Life & Witness

GOD'S MISSION TOGETHER

Global Ecumenical Partnerships welcomes you and invites you to join in forming meaningful and sustainable partnerships across denominations, faiths and cultures to restore relationships with one another, with God and with creation.

"In a broken and fearful world the Spirit gives us courage…to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace." – "A Brief Statement of Faith," lines 65, 66, 71.

The work of GEP is clear:
bring people together, tend the relationships, and let local discernment set the next faithful step.

- Partnership
- Equity
- Faithful ministry rooted in presence
- Relational accompaniment
- Continued listening as we build forward

To learn more, visit pcusa.org/gep or email:
Carlton.Johnson@pcusa.org
Cheryl.Barnes@pcusa.org
Ellen.Sherby@pcusa.org

Global Ecumenical Partnerships
A Ministry of Presbyterian Life & Witness