About Middle Eastern Ministries PC (USA)

Armenian Presbyterian Church New Jersey 1927-1970.

The office of Middle Eastern Emerging Ministries provides spiritual and organizational services to enable the growth and enhance the ministry of Middle Eastern Presbyterian churches and fellowships in the United States.

Presbyterian Middle Eastern Americans trace their Reformed roots to Presbyterian missions in the Middle East in the mid-19th century. Here in the United States, Middle Eastern Christian immigrants started to join the Presbyterian Church more than a century ago.

In 1898, the Armenian Presbyterian Mission of West Hoboken was organized to minister to refugees from the 1895 Turkish massacres and was officially recognized by the Jersey City Presbytery. The Mission later became the Armenian Presbyterian Church in New Jersey.

In 1899, a small group of Lebanese immigrants met regularly for worship in an apartment in Fall River, Massachusetts. The group eventually became affiliated with the Presbyterian Church, first as a mission and in 1934 as a church.

The first Assyrian Presbyterian Church in the United States was established in Chicago in 1910 as the Carter Memorial Persian Assyrian Presbyterian Church.

Today, there are more than 60 Presbyterian congregations and fellowships throughout the United States worshipping in different languages, including Persian, Assyrian, Armenian and Arabic. This, indeed, is a reflection of the work of the Holy Spirit among us and a testament to the enduring witness of Middle Eastern Christians in Diaspora.

In partnership with its Advisory Committee and the National Middle Eastern Presbyterian Caucus, the office of Middle Eastern Emerging Ministries provides the following services:

- Assists presbyteries in forming new worshipping communities for Middle Eastern immigrants.
- Coordinates leadership training events for clergy and laity.
- Creates and produces language-specific resources.
- Advocates for the participation of women and youth in all ordained leadership roles in the church.
- Acts as a bridge of dialogue promoting educational and cultural understanding.

The Association of Iranian Presbyterian Churches & Fellowships of North America (Anjoman)

Anjoman was formed in 2000 among Iranian Presbyterians living in North America and welcomes contact from others who hold to the Reformed Faith or desire more information about its ministry.

Mission Statement:

- 1 The Anjoman exists to encourage fellowship and mutual spiritual growth among its member churches and fellowships for the propagation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and the witness of His love and compassion to all.
- 2 The Anjoman seeks to create opportunities for further training of candidates for Christian ministry as well as assisting local fellowships in getting organized as congregations and helping find qualified pastors.
- 3 The leadership of the Anjoman is available for counseling in resolving the internal and external problems of member churches and fellowships.

The Association of Lutherans of Arab and Middle Eastern Heritage (ALAMEH)

An ethnic organization for Arabs and Middle Eastern Heritage members of The Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA), The Association of Lutherans of Arab and Middle Eastern Heritage (ALAMEH) was first formed in 1993. Founding members drew up a set of bylaws and an organizational plan. In 1995 ALAMEH was endorsed by the ELCA Church wide Assembly as an official organization within the denomination. Today, ALAMEH includes three Arabic-Language congregations: Salam Arabic Lutheran Church in Brooklyn, NY; The Abundant Life Lutheran Church in Dearborn, MI; and St. Elias Arabic Christian Church in Chicago, IL. The ELCA and PCUSA are in full communion, and enjoy many joint programs and activities.

The Armenian Evangelical Union of North America (AEUNA)

The Armenian Evangelical Union of North America (AEUNA) is a fellowship of churches in the United States, Canada, and Brazil, united by a common history and tradition dating back to the founding of the first Armenian Evangelical church in 1846 in Constantinople, Turkey. The purpose of AEUNA is to unite member congregations, pastors, and organizations within an ecclesiastical fellowship for ministry, mission, and service in the name of Jesus Christ. AEUNA strives primarily to serve those of Armenian descent living in the Americas.
