9:30 am Ticket	First Presbyterian Church, Salt Lake City Worship begins at 10:00 am; transportation load time is 9:30 am. Rev. Jamie White, Joe Bagdanov Located in Salt Lake City’s historic downtown for over 150 years, First Presbyterian serves as a spiritual home and place of worship for a vibrantly diverse, inclusive, and intergenerational community. Housed in our stunning, sandstone gothic cathedral, with some truly incredible stained-glass windows, FPC exists to love God, love our neighbors, and make disciples. Sunday worship includes a variety of traditional and contemporary music styles/liturgy, nursery care/children’s classes, and accessibility for those differently abled. Come worship with us! www.fpcslc.org
9:15 am Ticket	Cottonwood Presbyterian Church Worship begins at 10:00 am; transportation load time is 9:15 am. Rev. Nathan Sautter Cottonwood Presbyterian expresses its diversity in a variety of ways, including music ranging from traditional hymns to praise songs that might be led by our choir to bell choir or praise band, and our diversity of people with families from Cameroon, Pakistan, and Nigeria worshipping together. All this diversity is unified in our desire to be “in Christ, together for the world” as we love and serve our community especially through our SOUL Garden, a large community garden that provides food for many feeding ministries throughout the valley. www.cottonwoodpres.org
10:15 am Ticket	Mount Olympus Presbyterian Church Worship begins at 11:00 am; transportation load time is 10:15 am. Rev. Chris Pritchett, Rev. Bre Magill Mount Olympus Presbyterian Church (Mt. O) is a vibrant Matthew 25 congregation, located along the east bench of Salt Lake City, on the foothills of the Wasatch Mountains and the base of Mount Olympus. The congregation has been serving Salt Lake County for over sixty years. In addition to two Sunday morning services (traditional at 8:30 and contemporary at 11 am), Mt. O offers Sunday morning discipleship classes at 9:30 am and midweek formation programs for all ages, along with a multitude of local and global mission opportunities. Join us for worship! www.mountolympuschurch.com
9:15 am Ticket	Wasatch Presbyterian Church Worship begins at 10:00 am; transportation load time is 9:15 am. Rev. Bob Sheldon (Interim), Rev. Andrew Fleishman Wasatch Presbyterian is a suburban congregation that truly believes “God loves everyone”—and we mean everyone! We enjoy a blended worship service with everything from pipe organ to conga drums, and lots of people of all ages coming and going at different times. We are a high-energy congregation with many younger families that loves to involve and engage these younger explorers. If you don’t like kids in worship, you will want to choose a different church! www.wpcslc.org

9:00 am Ticket	Community of Grace Presbyterian Worship begins at 10:00 am; transportation load time is 9:00 am. Rev. Hansen Wendlandt Community of Grace is a justice-seeking, LGBTQ+ affirming, theologically curious congregation, with one window facing the glory of God’s mountains and another toward the city, where we are called to serve. Our worship style aims for community participation over any sense of high production value, has room for children to be themselves in worship and in nursery/childcare, ensures access for those of differing physical/hearing/neurodivergent abilities, includes blended musical styles, and is followed by hands-on mission projects. www.cogpc.org
10:15 am Ticket	Korean Presbyterian Church Worship begins at 11:00 am; transportation load time is 10:15 am. Rev. Man Sik Han The Korean Presbyterian Church of Utah is the first Korean church in the state. We have a thriving congregation. We worship each Sunday at 11:00 am in both Korean and English and welcome everybody to join us. www.facebook.com/kpcutah
10:15 am Ticket	Japanese Church of Christ Worship begins at 10:30 am; meet at 10:15 am at the SPCC for the one block walk to the church. Rev. Daniel Haas (Interim) The Japanese Church of Christ is located downtown on Japantown Street (268 100 South), on the west side of the SPCC. A traditional worship service is offered with portions of the program spoken in both Japanese and English. An accessible ramp is at the sanctuary's rear entrance. Children's Sunday School is available during the worship service. www.jccslc.net
8:45 am Ticket	First Presbyterian Ogden Worship begins at 10:00 am; transportation load time is 8:45 am. Rev. Jon Draskovic Our worship is a mixed liturgy that ranges from music and practices which are both ancient, modern, and in-between. We have ramp access for those with physical handicaps, Sunday School for elementary and middle school ages during worship, and a nursery for those with young children, although most parents choose to keep their little ones with them in worship, which we welcome! When you join us, you'll sing, pray, and hear Jesus proclaimed. www.fpcogden.org

8:45 am Ticket	Trinity Presbyterian Ogden Worship begins at 10:00 am; transportation loadtime is 8:45 am. Rev. Scott Wipperman Picturesque Trinity Presbyterian in Ogden, nestled at the base of Mt. Erye, was designed by a student of Frank Lloyd Wright, with a large communion table spanning two-thirds of the chancel. We are a Matthew 25 church, an LGBTQ+ welcoming congregation, and a More Light church; our communion table is a visual reminder that there is a place for everyone. Our worship style is traditional and laid back—definitely come as you are as we gather to worship God and learn more about loving our neighbor! www.trinityogden.org
