

Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation Board of Directors

Heidi Bolt,
Red Wing, Minnesota

Heidi Bolt is a teaching elder currently serving as co-pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Red Wing, MN. She also serves as the COM Coordinator for the Presbytery of the Twin Cities Area.

Heidi received her M.Div. from Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond, VA. She recently served on the Family Leave Policy Task Force created by the 223rd General Assembly (2018).

Samuel L. Bonner
Burlington, New Jersey

Samuel L. Bonner is a ruling elder who also chairs the Audit, Legal and Risk Committee and serves on the Committee on the Office of the General Assembly. Sam is a member and Elder at Ewing - Covenant Presbyterian Church in Trenton, New Jersey. A commissioner to the 222nd General Assembly (2016), Sam served on the Way Forward Committee and further elected to serve on the Way Forward Commission.

Sam was born in Choctaw, Alabama, and was raised in New Jersey. He holds a B.S. in economics from Thomas Edison State University of New Jersey, a graduate of the Rutgers University R.O.T.C., and completed graduate studies at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. Sam retired as a Lieutenant Colonel in the U.S. Army Infantry (U.S. Army Reserve). Employed by the U.S. Treasury, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, where he is a commissioned National Bank Examiner and Federal Thrift Regulator for large banks. Sam is a subject matter expert regarding bank supervisor, commercial and retail credit, and risk to large financial institutions.

Cynthia M. Campbell
Louisville, Kentucky

Cynthia Campbell has retired as pastor of Highland Presbyterian Church, Louisville, Kentucky, after nine years of ministry. She is also president emerita of McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, where she served from 1995-2011. Previously, she served as pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Salina, Kansas, and as associate professor of theology and ministry at Austin Presbyterian Seminary.

Cynthia is also chair of the Board of the Presbyterian Publishing Corporation.

Bridget-Anne Hampden
Charlotte, North Carolina

Re-elected by the 224th General Assembly (2020) to the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation (A Corp), Bridget-Anne Hampden is the immediate past co-chair of its Board. During that same Assembly, she was also elected as Co-Chair of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation. Bridget-Anne is the Foundation's representative to the A Corp board.

Bridget-Anne has over 30 years of global financial, information technology, strategic planning and human capital management experience. She has held senior positions such as chief information officer, chief technology risk executive and chief contingency planning executive for large financial institutions. She also served as a Senior Advisor in the Department of Education - Federal Student Aid during the Obama Administration. Bridget-Anne has held leadership positions on numerous nonprofit boards and is a member and ruling elder of C.N. Jenkins Memorial Presbyterian Church in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Sinthia Hernandez-Diaz
Miami, Florida

Sinthia is the Director of Advisory Services within The Mosaic Company's Internal Audit department. Sinthia is based in South Florida and has over 20 years of professional work experience in providing audit and consulting-related services to public and private companies, encompassing aspects of strategic, financial, operational, and compliance functions and processes.

She is currently a board member of the Presbyterian Mission Agency and a member of First Spanish Presbyterian Church of Miami.

Sinthia is a Florida and Virginia certified public accountant and is fluent in Spanish.

Mark Lu
San Diego, California

Mark Lu was elected by the 224th General Assembly (2020) to the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation, as sent by the Board of Pensions to be the agency representative. Mark has recently concluded service to the Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), and was previously on the Board of Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Foundation.

Mark had served on his home church's stewardship committee, and as a member of the Grace First Presbyterian Church in Long Beach, California, is currently serving on its finance committee.

For over 25 years, Mark has worked in various finance disciplines of insurance industries and is currently working as a strategy professional in Contract Financial Management with a pharmacy benefit manager organization of a national health insurance carrier. Mark holds undergraduate and graduate degrees in Applied Mathematics from the University of California at San Diego.

Christopher M. Mason
New York City, New York

Christopher M. Mason was elected by the 223rd General Assembly (2018) to the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation (A Corp.). Chris had previously served on the All Agency Review Committee of the 222nd General Assembly (2016) and before that, for eight years as a member of the Board of Directors of the Board of Pensions of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). He currently serves as the co-chair of the A Corp. Board.

Chris is a partner in the law firm of Nixon Peabody LLP, where he holds and has held various leadership positions, currently including membership on the firm's board, deputy head of the firm's Class Action Team, and head of the firm's Arbitration Team. He has also been appointed by New York state and federal courts as a mediator in numerous cases over the past 20 years. He is a member of the Brick Presbyterian Church in the City of New York, where he was ordained and has served a deacon, elder, usher, and member or head of various committees. He is the moderator of the Permanent Judicial Commission of the Presbytery of New York City and has previously served on its Committee for Ministry, its Board of Trustees, various administrative commissions, several investigative committees, and in other roles. In addition to his law practice and the church, he is involved in a number of other organizations, including as a member of the Board of Directors of the Lawyers Committee for Civil Rights Under Law.

Thomas McNeill
Avon, Connecticut

Thomas McNeill is an elder and chair of the investment committee of First Presbyterian Church in Hartford, Connecticut. He worked for nine years at Aetna as real estate investment counsel and has been self-employed since 1987 as a lawyer doing financings, real estate and probate estates, as he holds a real estate broker's license in Connecticut.

Thomas was elected three times to the Avon Board of Education, serving 12 years, and serves as an administrative hearing officer for several Connecticut state agencies. Thomas serves as chair of the Presbyterian Investment & Loan Program Board and the Access Health Connecticut Board. He received a B.A. in history from Middlebury College and a J.D. degree from the Northwestern University School of Law in 1978.

Jason Micheli
Yorba Linda, California

Jason T. Micheli is pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Anaheim, California and an investment advisor at Financial Growth Management, Inc., an investment advisory firm in southern California. Jason previously served as Senior Pastor at Winter Park Presbyterian Church in Winter Park, Florida and as Associate Pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Columbus, Georgia.

Joyce Rarumangkay
Dumfries, Virginia

Joyce moved to the US from Indonesia in 1989 for her job with the World Bank Office in Washington, D.C. Through her 30-year of experience working in this diverse global institution in its Jakarta and Washington offices, Joyce gained experience in building effective support systems to serve people from different backgrounds and locations. As the Head of the World Bank's Administrative and Client Support Network, Joyce focused on building the career development program for about 2,000 administrative staff members from all over the world, and on increasing diversity through recruitment practices. She retired from the World Bank at the end of 2015.

Joyce was selected by the Racial Equity Advocacy Committee (REAC) to serve on the A-Corporation Board. She is a ruling elder of the Emmanuel Indonesian Presbyterian Church, Rockville, Maryland, and is currently serving as the elected chairperson of the Light to the Nations Network (a network of immigrant ministry of the National Capital Presbytery). She had previously served as a member of the Advocacy Committee for Women's Concerns.

JoAnne Sharp
Pueblo, Colorado

JoAnne is a Ruling Elder, serving First Presbyterian in Pueblo Colorado as their Director of Education and Youth Ministries. She will soon complete her certification as a Christian Educator within the PC(USA). She is passionate about Educational ministry and loves helping build the foundation of faith with children and youth.

JoAnne serves on the Advocacy Committee for Women's Concerns (ACWC), and currently one of the three Co-Moderators of that body. She lives into the passion of helping ACWC be the prophetic voice to/of the PC(USA) via the gender justice lens.

William (Bill) Teng
Lake Suzy, Florida

Born and raised in Hong Kong, the Rev. William (Bill) Teng is a fourth-generation Presbyterian minister. After concluding 40 years of active ministry teaching at the Alliance Bible Seminary in Hong Kong and serving congregations in New York; Texas; Hong Kong (twice); Florida (twice); Washington, D.C.; and Alexandria, Virginia, Bill retired from called ministry at the end of 2018 in order to serve in transitional ministry. He has since served as interim pastor at Ardmore Presbyterian Church, in the Philadelphia area, and currently at Trinity Presbyterian Church in Venice, Florida.

Bill received advanced degrees in music and theology and has served on various councils of the larger church. He was nominated by National Capital Presbytery to stand for moderator of the 218th General Assembly in 2008 and was elected by the 223rd General Assembly (2018) to serve on the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation (A Corp), and has been elected as its Co-Chair in August 2020. Bill is also a volunteer chaplain with the Civil Air Patrol, the auxiliary of the United States Air Force, with the rank of Major. He and his wife, Karen, reside in Lake Suzy, Florida.

Carol Winkler
Dayton, Kentucky

Carol Winkler serves as the representative for Presbyterian Women (PW) on the Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), A Corporation (A Corp). She was the 2015-2018 moderator of Presbyterian Women in the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Inc.

Carol has served PW as well as the PC(USA) as a leader at all levels of the church. She is an elder of First Presbyterian Church in Fort Thomas, Kentucky.
