World Mission

Presbyterians do mission in partnership. Doing mission in partnership broadens our awareness of the interconnected nature of God's mission at the local, national and global levels. We understand that the one mission to which all people are called is God's mission. For more than 180 years, World Mission has sought to serve in God's mission together with siblings in Christ.

Global Connections

Guided by the Matthew 25 vision, World Mission is seeking new ways to come alongside global partners and nurture faith-filled relationships based in equity, mutuality and justice rooted in God's love and the Gospel of Jesus. World Mission is committed to building congregational vitality, dismantling structural racism and eradicating systemic poverty. Our staff team accompanies global partner ministries as they address these and other issues within their communities, countries and throughout the world. World Mission focuses on supporting global partners' work for long-term, sustainable solutions that empower people to bring about lasting change.

Mission Connections

Presbyterian mission co-workers are dedicated and passionate, serving as long-term colleagues in ministry with PC(USA) partners in more than 50 countries around the world. They accompany partners in ministries of education, health, environmental justice, sustainable development and human rights. They help organize and host short-term groups from the United States to create meaningful, mutually enriching experiences. Mission co-workers are bridge builders – listening to and learning from both international and U.S.-based partners.

Find mission co-worker profile pages and letters by visiting pcusa.org/missionconnections.

Interested in having a mission co-worker speak at your church? Contact Mary Nebelsick at mary.nebelsick@pcusa.org; 800-728-7228, ext. 5075.

Request mission co-worker prayer cards by contacting Cindy Rubin at cynthia.rubin@pcusa.org; 800-728-7228, ext. 5065.

Young Adult Volunteers

The Young Adult Volunteer (YAV) program is an ecumenical, faith-based year of service for young people (ages 19–30) in sites across the United States and around the world. YAVs accompany local agencies working to address root causes of poverty and reconciliation. Alongside this work, volunteers explore the meaning of their Christian faith and accountability to their neighbors in the community with peers and mentors.

Both virtual and in-person opportunities are available.

Read about the available sites, current volunteers and frequently asked questions by visiting youngadultvolunteers.org.

Equipping for Mission Involvement

Equipping for Mission Involvement provides Presbyterians with resources to engage faithfully and effectively in God's mission. These include:

- Practical resources for planning short-term mission trips.
- Assessment tools for strengthening your congregation's mission committee.
- Information about establishing and maintaining mission partnerships.
- Mission networks and yearly meeting schedule.
- Topical toolkits for continued learning and engagement.

Find all these resources and more at pcusa.org/missionresources.
