MIGRATION ACCOMPANIMENT MINISTRY

In first half of 2024, PDA's Migration Accompaniment Ministries focused much of its attention on supporting U.S.-based congregations and coalitions working together to receive asylum seekers into their communities. In February, PDA hosted a networking call among groups actively involved in accompaniment ministries with over 30 participants from 23 different churches or organizations (9 presbyteries). Grants to Mid-Councils supported program coordinators and organizers, rental assistance and other program needs for our newest neighbors. International grants supported work with Internally Displaced Persons in South Sudan and Ukraine with both basic survival needs and projects to support their economic independence.

The Trouble The Water docuseries will soon be edited into one film and distributed across streaming platforms, including Amazon, Apple, Roku and Cable On Demand. Production, listening sessions, and interviews continued with community partners from the Eastern Woodland Indigenous Tribes of NC for the industrial pollution and environmental racism documentary, as well as for a new short documentary focused on eviction and homelessness amplifying the voices of children and families. Production continued on a new documentary focused on gun violence prevention with listening sessions and interviews with community/faith leaders from across the country who are working to prevent shootings and save lives in their communities.
