PRESBYTERIAN COMMITTEE ON THE SELF-DEVELOPMENT OF PEOPLE

What is the Presbyterian Committee on the Self-Development of People?

Self-Development of People (SDOP) is a ministry in which people join together to share and use the human and material resources God has provided.

In locating and identifying groups within our Presbytery, which meet the CATEGORIES OF NEED:

The Self-Development of People ministry shall enter into partnerships with groups of poor, oppressed, and disadvantaged people who:

1. are oppressed by poverty;
2. want to take charge of their own lives;
3. have organized, or are organizing, to do something about their own condition;
4. have decided that what they are going to do will produce direct, long-term changes for their lives or communities; and will benefit them directly.
