

A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood

Mr. Rogers Emphasis Day

Fred Rogers was an ordained minister of word and sacrament for the PC(USA) and is a notable public figure whose work around peace and reconciliation are worth remembering. Rogers was also a pioneer in the world of Christian education and formation of young children. March 20th was his birthday and the day that the PC(USA) has chosen to highlight all we can learn from his work. This QuickSheet is a compilation of ideas and resources for faith communities to engage in this emphasis day.

Ten Things To Do

1. Ask everyone to wear a sweater (post/share photos.)
2. Sing “Won’t You Be My Neighbor” in worship.
3. Watch Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood clips as part of your worship service or education class.
4. Plan an adult education class on the documentary or the movie or one of the books about Mister Rogers.
5. Engage in Neighboring Sunday using suggestions from this Neighboring Sunday QuickSheet
6. Lead a children’s sermon about “being yourself”.
7. Mr. Rogers was ordained to the ministry of his TV show. Recognize and learn about those in your Presbytery that are ordained to serve in ministries other than a local church pastor.
8. Have a worship service led by children.
9. Learn about and support organizations that engage in early childhood education.
10. Ask your youth/young people to lead Storytime and conversation for children with one of the suggested books or with Mr. Rogers songs.

PCUSA Resources

Compassion, Peace & Justice:

- Building a Neighborhood Together: An Intergenerational Peacemaking Project Producer of “Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood”. This free downloadable booklet describes the process for building a neighborhood out of boxes and other everyday household supplies. It is an activity for all ages and all kinds of families working together. The Neighborhood Build is based on Fred Rogers’ ideas about relationships, creative play, pride in making things, family communication, and community.
- Peacemaking in the Family: Four Intergenerational Events for Your Church written by Fred Rogers and Barbara Marsh - This free downloadable adaptable resource, developed in 1984, is both timeless and timely, coauthored by Rev. Fred Rogers. This resource is organized around four areas of family life – feelings, growth, hard times and celebrations – and identifies peacemaking skills that can be employed to strengthen all members of a household. For each topic there is helpful background information and an intergenerational program design. It is based on the book Mr. Rogers Talks with Parents, written by Fred Rogers and Barry Head. Even though it is over 30 years old, the lessons held in this resource and the inspiration of Fred Rogers are as relevant and important today as they were when first written.

- Peace Fair Planning Guide - This is an intergenerational event which is a part of the Season of Peace materials from the Presbyterian Peacemaking Program.
- Season of Peace Doodle Coloring Poster. This is available for download in a variety of sizes.
