Great Resources at Your Fingertips

For more than fifty years, Call to Worship: Liturgy, Music, Preaching, and the Arts, a quarterly journal of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) Office of Theology and Worship and Presbyterian Association of Musicians, has offered insight and inspiration for pastors, church musicians, artists, and other worship leaders. With revised and expanded features in the Lectionary Aids and thematic issues, now there's even more to love.

For each Sunday and festival of the Christian year, this Lectionary Aids issue of Call to Worship (49.1) provides:

- Lectionary Summaries
- Calls to Worship
- Prayers of the Day
- Prayers of Confession
- Prayers of the People
- Eucharistic Prayers
- Hymn and Song Suggestions
- Anthems for Larger Choirs
- Anthems for Smaller/Youth Choirs
- Anthems for Children's Choirs
- Handbell Music
- Organ Music

Please take the time to read the expanded introductions to each of these elements below, in order to find out how to make better use of these materials in worship.

For each season of the Christian year (e.g., Advent), these additional resources are provided:

- Calls to Confession and Declarations of Forgiveness
- Prayers for Illumination and Statements Before/After Readings
- Ascriptions of Praise
- Affirmations of Faith
- Invitations to Offering and Prayers of Dedication

- Prayers after Communion
- Blessings and Charges
- Seasonal Hymn and Song Suggestions

Again, for tips on using these materials in your congregation, I encourage you to read the expanded introductions that follow.

The impulse behind this distinctive combination of Sunday/festival and seasonal resources comes from the conviction that worshipers need a mixture of “new” and “given” information in each service. Some elements of worship must change from week to week; these elements bring a sharp focus on a particular set of scriptural texts or themes for the day, emphasizing particular aspects of Christian faith and life. Other elements of worship should repeat for a period of weeks; these elements work in a cumulative way, immersing worshipers in central things and enabling their deeper participation in the liturgy. If everything is new each week, worshipers may be overwhelmed with novelty, struggling to follow the flow of worship. If everything is the same from week to week, the words and actions of worship begin to lose their power to engage the imagination.

Thus the careful blending of these two types of materials allows for more full, active, and conscious participation among persons with different learning styles and levels of liturgical experience—including children and other new worshipers. The mixture of these elements requires much pastoral wisdom and discretion, of course, since different congregations will have different tolerances or appetites for change.

As for the other three issues in this volume of Call to Worship, watch for these upcoming topics and themes:

- Call to Worship 49.2—Time after Epiphany. While not traditionally acknowledged as a season in the liturgical year, the time between the Baptism and Transfiguration of the Lord is marked by a distinctive set of themes—

David Gambrell, editor, Call to Worship: Liturgy, Music, Preaching, and the Arts

vocation, discipleship, community, being beloved. This issue of Call to Worship will provide a fresh perspective on this “unsung season” in the Christian year.

- Call to Worship 49.3—The Work of the People. Liturgy means “the work of the people.” Too often, however, the work of a liturgical leader can be a solitary endeavor. This issue of Call to Worship illustrates collaborative approaches to liturgy, music, preaching, and the arts, featuring stories from congregations.
- Call to Worship 49.4—Worship 101. What should every church leader know about preaching, the sacraments, congregational song, the order of worship, the liturgical calendar, pastoral liturgies, and more? This issue of Call to Worship invites experts in a variety of worship-related disciplines to distill and share their wisdom.

In addition to featured articles on the topics described above, these thematic issues will include columns from innovative leaders in local congregations, practical ideas for celebration in worship, reviews of recent books and musical resources, and colorful contributions from liturgical artists.

Be sure to check out our website (pcusa.org/calltoworship) and Facebook page (facebook.com/calltoworship), where you'll find additional features and supplementary content related to the themes of these issues. The website now provides complete orders of worship for each Sunday and festival in the Christian year, assembled from the materials in this issue and arranged according to the Service for the Lord's Day (of course, you are encouraged to edit and adapt as needed for your congregational setting). The website gives subscribers access to our archives of past issues of Call to Worship and Reformed Liturgy & Music—a remarkable library of scholarly articles and practical resources.

I hope you'll find much theological insight and liturgical inspiration in this Lectionary Aids issue of Call to Worship, as well as the three thematic issues to come in this volume. I encourage you to be in touch about how we can continue to enhance your congregation's worship and equip you in ministry for years to come.

Grace and peace,
David Gambrell

Seasonal Resources

For the season of Advent, the season of Christmas, the time after Epiphany, the season of Lent, the season of Easter, and the time after Pentecost (subdivided into three sections), this issue of Call to Worship provides the following sets of texts to be used over a span of several weeks—primarily based on key lectionary passages found within that season.

Calls to Confession and Declarations of Forgiveness. These introductory and concluding statements serve as a kind of envelope, framing the rite of confession and pardon in each season with language that highlights the focus of that aspect of the Christian year. In keeping with Reformed tradition, the Call to Confession always includes an affirmation of God's mercy (“trusting in God's grace”); we make our confession already confident in the love of God revealed to us through Jesus Christ. The Declaration of Forgiveness always ends with a corporate assurance of pardon in Jesus' name (“we are forgiven”). Here, as elsewhere, consistent congregational responses are provided (in this case, “Thanks be to God”); such consistent responses are valuable in facilitating congregational participation, especially among young children.

Prayers for Illumination and Statements Before/After Readings. Seasonal Prayers for Illumination are provided as a way to locate the readings for each Sunday/festival within the broader context of the Christian year. These prayers might be enlarged, printed, and attached to the lectern or pulpit for use by deacons, (ruling) elders, or other readers of Scripture. Sentences of Scripture before and after the readings help us to prepare our hearts and minds to receive the Word and give us direction as we seek to live out the proclamation of the gospel. To the statement after the reading, worshipers are invited to respond: “Thanks be to God.”

Ascriptions of Praise. These brief sentences from Scripture are intended as conclusions to the sermon, giving glory to God for the Word we have received. Worshipers are invited to respond: “Amen.”

Affirmations of Faith. The Affirmations of Faith provided in this issue of Call to Worship are all excerpts from the Study Catechism of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), a resource commended by the denomination's 210th General Assembly (1998). Often used in confirmation classes, the Study Catechism offers thoughtful answers to deep questions of faith, framed in direct, accessible language. In keeping with the catechetical question-and-answer formula, each one begins with a question (voiced by the leader), followed by congregational response (in the bold print).

Invitations to Offering and Prayers of Dedication. The Invitations to Offering (before the collection of gifts) are derived from lectionary texts for each season. The Prayers of Dedication (following the collection) draw similarly on scriptural and seasonal images and themes. Worship planners are encouraged to invite (ruling) elders and/or deacons to call for the offering and pray over the gifts, as an expression of their respective ministries of stewardship of the congregation's resources and care for those in need.

Prayers after Communion. Seasonal Prayers after Communion provide another anchor to the Christian year, helping the congregation to experience different facets of the eucharistic meal. They also point from the table toward the church's mission and ministry in the world.

Blessings and Charges. Sentences of Scripture from lectionary texts are the basis for the Blessings and Charges provided for each season. The order of Blessing then Charge represents a change in typical Presbyterian practice, although readers from other denominations will likely recognize this pattern. This reflects the understanding that we are blessed in order to go forth and be a blessing (Genesis 12:2)—a "missional" connection between the church's worship and service in the world. This is the same order suggested in the revised Service for the Lord's Day found in Glory to God, the 2013 Presbyterian hymnal. While the pastor typically speaks the Blessing, worship planners are encouraged to invite deacons and/or elders to give the Charge, perhaps from the font, table, or door of the church.

Hymn and Song Suggestions. At the beginning of each season in the Christian year (Advent, Christmas, time after Epiphany, Lent, Easter, and time after Pentecost), you'll find ideas for hymns or songs that may be repeated or rotated throughout that period of time (for instance, a gathering song, a musical response to forgiveness, a refrain during communion, or a hymn stanza doxology). As indicated above, there is spiritual and catechetical value in such repetition, as worshipers enter more deeply into the words and music over time and are more able to sing these songs by heart.

Sunday/Festival Resources

For each Sunday and festival in the Christian year, this issue of Call to Worship offers the following sets of texts that are distinctive to each day; these are based closely on phrases and images from the lectionary readings for the day. A note to preachers: you may find it helpful to read over these Sunday/festival liturgical texts as you begin to work on your sermon, since these resources not only summarize and highlight primary themes in the lectionary, but also demonstrate how the Scriptures relate to one another.

Lectionary Summaries. These one-sentence summaries of each lectionary reading and psalm are one of the hidden treasures of Call to Worship. They are, of course, valuable for preachers, worship planners, musicians, and artists as they seek to shape the service for the day and select appropriate resources. But they may also be used by members of the congregation in one or both of the following ways: (a) as brief orientations to the lectionary Scriptures, printed in the worship bulletin; (b) as previews of the readings for the week to come, either printed at the end of the bulletin or emailed to members. The lectionary summaries are revised in this issue, with special attention to the most memorable words or emblematic images in each passage.

Calls to Worship. The Calls to Worship in this issue are closely based on the lectionary texts for each Sunday/festival, and seek to highlight areas of convergence or resonance among the Scriptures for the day. A consistent format—leader/people, leader/people—allows for a reliable rhythm at the beginning of each worship service. Worship planners should consider inviting (ruling) elders and/or deacons to lead these Calls to Worship, as well as the Prayers of the Day that follow.

Prayers of the Day. The Prayers of the Day, primarily focused on the Gospel readings, provide another good entrée into the Scriptures, and a resource for those preparing to preach and lead worship. Preachers may find it helpful to pray these prayers during their sermon writing; church musicians may find them useful as prayers for choir rehearsal.

Prayers of Confession. Careful readers will discover that the Prayers of Confession in this issue are a mixture of seasonal and daily materials. Certain sentences and phrases—particular to the Sunday or festival, and drawn from the lectionary texts for the day—are woven into a seasonal framework, so that worshipers can appreciate how our confession relates both to the biblical texts that are read and proclaimed on a given day and to the larger patterns and dynamics of the Christian year. This consistent framework for the Prayers of Confession has another more practical advantage, in that they should occupy roughly the same amount of space in the printed (or projected) worship aids each Sunday.

Prayers of the People. Like the Prayers of Confession, the Prayers of the People provided in this issue of Call to Worship are a blend of seasonal and daily materials. The opening and closing sections repeat throughout a season or span of weeks, while the inner sets of intercessions are based on images in the lectionary for that Sunday/festival. With each set of intercessions, petitions are provided for: the church's mission and ministry; the earth, its nations and peoples; the local community; and the needs of loved ones, family, and friends.

It is impossible, of course, for writers of liturgical resources to anticipate or imagine the global, national, and local events that will arise through the course of the year, or the issues that will be faced by a worshiping community. Therefore it is especially important for worship planners to adapt and expand these texts according to the needs of a particular congregation and the demands of current affairs. One way for this to happen is to name particular concerns in the place provided

While a seasonal leader/response is provided (“Come quickly, Lord; our hope is in you” in Advent, e.g.), congregations may wish to use other spoken or sung responses to each intercession. Worship planners are well advised, however, to be consistent within a given season or span of weeks, in order that worshipers may learn these responses and enter more easily into prayer.

Finally, consider inviting deacons and/or (ruling) elders to lead the Prayers of the People—perhaps using the same person throughout a season or span of weeks, following the pattern of these liturgical resources. This is an excellent way to demonstrate the “priesthood of all believers,” to exercise the spiritual gifts of these leaders, and to engage other members of the congregation in pastoral care.

Eucharistic Prayers. In an effort to encourage more congregations to consider weekly Eucharist, the raw materials for brief, lectionary-based Eucharistic Prayers are provided for every Sunday and festival of the Christian year. Some assembly is required—in order to save space, the entire texts of the Great Thanksgivings are not provided in the printed edition of Call to Worship (but will be available electronically). The three “proper” elements (texts specific to a particular day) are to be inserted into the framework of the Eucharistic Prayer at the appropriate places (see numbers one, two, and three). Here is an example, using the texts for the First Sunday of Advent:

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, O Lord our God:

1. We give thanks, O Lord, that the days are surely coming when all the world will see the fulfillment of your promise of salvation.
You alone are our righteousness,
our only hope for justice and peace.

Therefore we praise you, joining the song of the universal church and the heavenly choir:
A Sanctus ("Holy, holy, holy") is sung.

Blessed is Jesus Christ, our Savior:

2. In Christ, the tree of life, we have seen the first fruits of your holy realm.
Though heaven and earth pass away,
Christ's word stands secure.
Even now, we look for the day of his coming in power and great glory.

The words of institution are included here.

Remembering your goodness and grace,
we offer ourselves to you with gratitude
as we share this joyful feast.

*A Memorial Acclamation (e.g., "Christ has died")
is sung.*

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon us
and upon this bread and cup;
make us one in the body and blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

3. Teach us to pray night and day that we may see you face to face.
Strengthen us in holiness, faithfulness, joy, and love,
so that we may be ready
at the coming of the Lord.

Through the Lord Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Spirit,
we bless you, God of glory,
now and forever.

An Amen is sung.

Of course, this pattern can be adapted, inserting the texts provided into another Great Thanksgiving, such as one of the models presented in the Presbyterian Book of Common Worship (Westminster John Knox Press, 1993). For another option, see Gail Ramshaw's "Eucharistic Prayer for Year C" on page 11 of this issue.

Hymn and Song Suggestions. For each Sunday and festival of the Christian year, congregational songs are suggested in four categories, corresponding to the fourfold order of the Service for the Lord's Day: Gathering, The Word, Eucharist, and Sending. Letters in brackets indicate the lectionary text most closely connected with that hymn or song: [O] = Old Testament, [E] = Epistle, and [G] = Gospel. During the Easter season [A] is used to indicate hymns inspired by the Acts reading; elsewhere [R] is used to indicate hymns or songs based on a passage from Revelation.

During the time after Pentecost (between Trinity Sunday and Reign of Christ), the abbreviations [Os] and [Oc] are used for the semicontinuous and complementary Old Testament tracks, respectively.
(For an explanation of these two parallel tracks of lectionary readings, see below.) In many cases, hymns and songs will have resonance with multiple lectionary readings; this is indicated with two or more abbreviations to the left of the title of the hymn or song [e.g., OEG].

As with last year's Lectionary Aids issue, the names of hymn tunes are listed in SMALL CAPS.
This allows for coordination with other musical offerings (namely, handbell and organ selections) and sometimes helps to identify hymns and songs with unfamiliar first lines, or to distinguish between pieces with similar titles. As with last year, contemporary and global styles of congregational song are not listed under a separate heading but are included among other hymns and songs in order to facilitate a "blended" approach to worship planning and music selection.

Psalm Settings. Settings for psalms and canticles (both metrical and responsorial) come from several exciting new resources: the joint Christian Reformed Church/Reformed Church of America publication Psalms for All Seasons (Faith Alive Christian Resources, 2012); The Psalter—Psalms and Canticles for Singing (Westminster John Knox Press, 1993; see the new choral edition, Westminster John Knox Press, 2011); a revised edition of Michael Morgan's Psalter for Christian Worship (Witherspoon Press, 2010); and Hal Hopson's The People's Psalter (MorningStar Music Publishers, 2008), which features musical refrains based on folk songs. This issue of Call to Worship also identifies a number of new psalm settings published for the first time in Glory to God: The Presbyterian Hymnal (Westminster John Knox Press, 2013).

Anthems for Larger Choirs. Anthems for larger choirs tend to be four-part (SATB) arrangements and are intended for more confident and experienced groups of singers.

Anthems for Smaller/Youth Choirs. Two- or three-part anthems are suggested for smaller choirs or youth choirs. In this year's Lectionary Aids issue, there is a particular focus on anthems based on compositions from the contemporary (praise and worship) music tradition.

Anthems for Children's Choirs. Anthems for children's choirs this year were chosen with a particular focus on global music in Glory to God, the 2013 Presbyterian hymnal. Often, the selections provided will help to teach a new song to the congregation.

Handbell Music. Three to five hymn-based handbell selections are offered for each Sunday/festival. Names of hymn tunes are indicated in SMALL CAPS. Difficulty levels are provided using the AGEHR rating method—a scale of 1 to 6 with 6 being most difficult.

Organ Music. Three to five hymn-based organ settings, representing a wide variety of composers, music styles, and playing levels, are selected for each service. Arrangements of recommended global songs are provided wherever possible. In some cases, multiple settings of the same tune are offered so that the organist might have contrasting arrangements to play at different points in the service. Names of hymn tunes are provided in SMALL CAPS. Key to playing levels: E = easy, M = medium, and D = difficult.

About the Revised Common Lectionary

These worship planning aids are designed to coordinate with the Revised Common Lectionary (RCL), a three-year system for reading biblical texts in worship on the Lord's Day and other festivals. The RCL represents the work of the Consultation on Common Texts, an ecumenical body of scholars and denominational representatives in North America; member denominations include the Episcopal Church (U.S.A.), the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.), the Reformed Church in America, the United Church of Christ, and the United Methodist Church, among others. While the Roman Catholic Church uses a somewhat different lectionary, the U.S. and Canadian Catholic churches have had a voice in the shaping of the RCL. The Revised Common Lectionary is widely used by an increasing number of Protestant denominations in North America and around the world.

Congregations and their liturgical leaders have found that using the lectionary allows for the reading of a broad range of Scripture in worship and entering into the rhythms and patterns of the liturgical year. Furthermore, the lectionary offers a discipline for the reading and preaching of texts that one might not choose if left to one's own devices, and a system that allows for coordinated worship planning among pastors, musicians, artists, and worship committees.

Readers will notice that during the time after Pentecost (or "Ordinary Time," between Trinity Sunday and Christ the King / Reign of Christ), there are two streams of readings from the Old Testament: semicontinuous (Os) and complementary (Oc). In keeping with the Reformed tradition of the lectio continua pattern of reading through Scripture, many Presbyterian churches follow the semicontinuous readings, which move sequentially through the major stories and themes of Old Testament books. The psalm of the day is chosen to be sung or read in response to the reading from the Old Testament. Congregations of the United Church of Christ and Evangelical Lutheran Church in America often follow the other stream of complementary readings, in which the Old Testament readings are coordinated with the Gospel reading, as they are during the major liturgical festivals and seasons. Here, too, the psalm for the day is intended as a response to the Old Testament reading.

Eucharistic Prayer for Year C

Gail Ramshaw

Editor's note: Permission is granted for use of this eucharistic prayer. If the text is printed out and distributed, please reproduce as is.

We praise and magnify you, Lord our God!
We proclaim your greatness, God Most High.
We bless you for your covenant,
for your mercy shown to Abraham and Sarah,
for your promise to David and Bathsheba,
for your word spoken by the prophets,
and for the gift of your Son, our mighty Savior.
Blessed are you, Lord our God!

Blessed are you, Lord our God!

We praise and magnify you, Lord our God!
We trust in your tender compassion.
For Jesus is our good shepherd, we are the flock.
He is the sweeping woman, we the lost coin.
He is the light to all the nations.
He eats with us, as with Mary and Martha, with Zacchaeus and the disciples, breaking bread for us, as at Emmaus, and showing us the resurrection.
On the night before he died, he took bread . . . [words of institution]
For this meal and for your presence within it, we call out
Blessed are you, Lord our God!

Blessed are you, Lord our God!

As you sent your Spirit to Mary, pour out your Spirit on us and this meal.
Feed us with your life, and make us holy and righteous before you.
Heal us, that with the crippled woman we may stand upright.
Raise us, that with the widow's son we may live anew.
Send us out into all the world, preaching your way of peace.
Blessed are you, Lord our God!

Blessed are you, Lord our God!

To you, Mighty One, merciful Three, God of all the living,
Father of forgiveness, Author of life, Dawn in our darkness,
we join with the multitude of angels to sing of your glory,
today, tomorrow, and forever.
Amen.

Amen.

Surely God is our salvation.
Have faith, and do not be afraid.
Isaiah 12:2

Trusting in God's grace,

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Lifting water from the baptismal font:

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Season of Advent (and Christmas)

We believe that God has entrusted the church with the message of reconciliation in and through Jesus Christ.

We believe that the church is called to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world.

We believe that the church is called blessed because it is a peacemaker.

We believe that the church is witness both by word and by deed to the new heaven and the new earth in which righteousness dwells.

INVITATION TO OFFERING

At the communion table:

God calls us to be a living body,
not a burnt offering.

In the name of Christ,

let us offer our lives to the Lord
and seek to do God's will.

Hebrews 10:5-7

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

At the communion table:

Giver of all that is good,
may the gifts that we bring today—gifts of money, energy, and commitment—be gathered up into your great love, and through us, may your love overflow more and more into all the world. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

At the communion table:

Mighty God, holy is your name.

We thank you for gathering us at your table and feeding us with the bread of life.

As we leave this table to go to the many places where you call us,

send your Spirit to accompany us,

so that we may share in your magnificent work:
lifting up those who are laid low,

showing mercy to all in need of human kindness,
and feeding the bodies and hearts of all those who are hungry. Amen.

BLESSING AND CHARGE

At the doors of the church:

May the peace of God,
which surpasses all understanding,
guard your hearts and minds

in Christ Jesus. Alleluia!

Philippians 4:7

Rejoice in the Lord always.

Again I say, Rejoice!

The Lord is near. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

May accompany the lighting of Advent candles

The days are coming, says the Lord,
when the promise will be fulfilled.
Heaven and earth will pass away,
but God's word will stand forever.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy God, earth and heaven may pass away but your realm is eternal and your promise is sure.
Enlighten our hearts with hope as our Redeemer draws near.
Help us to heed the signs of the times,
so that we may be ready to stand before Christ, our Judge and Savior, in whose glorious name we pray.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, we confess
that we resist your holy realm.
You seek justice and righteousness,
but we pursue selfish agendas.
You promise us salvation,
but we trust in our own strength.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Lead us in your way of truth
so that we may be ready
to see you face to face;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Restore what is lacking in our faith.
Help us to increase and abound in love
for one another and for you, our God.
Emmanuel, come; O come and save us.

We pray for the world . . .
Teach us to interpret the signs around us,
warnings of disaster and destruction.
Bring peace and healing to this planet.
Emmanuel, come; O come and save us.

We pray for this community . . .
Bless our houses and neighborhoods with your justice and righteousness,
so that all may live in safety, without fear.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Remember those who lift their souls to you.
Surround them with your steadfast love and preserve them from their troubles.

and make us ready, on the day of redemption,
to stand before you, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. We give thanks, O Lord, that the days are surely coming when all the world will see the fulfillment of your promise of salvation.
You alone are our righteousness, our only hope for justice and peace.
2. In Christ, the tree of life, we have seen the first fruits of your holy realm.
Though heaven and earth may pass away, Christ's word stands secure.
Even now, we look for the day of his coming in power and great glory.
3. Teach us to pray night and day that we may see you face to face.
Strengthen us in holiness, faithfulness, joy, and love,
so that we may be ready at the coming of the Lord.

CALL TO WORSHIP

May accompany the lighting of Advent candles

I am sending a messenger, says the Lord, to prepare the way before me.

Even now, a voice is crying out:

Prepare the way of the Lord!

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy God, through Isaiah and John
you sent your word into the wilderness, crying out: Repent, seek forgiveness,
and prepare the way of the Lord!

Now prepare the way in us and in our world for the coming of your living Word,
so that all flesh may know your saving grace;
through Jesus Christ who is coming to reign.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Eternal God, we confess
that we resist your holy realm.
You come with fire to cleanse us,
yet we remain in our corruption.
You come with water to save us,
yet we persist in our sin.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Prepare the way in us
to greet the one who is coming,
so that we may see your salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the steadfast love of the Lord,
let us pray for the fulfillment of God's promises, saying: Emmanuel, come; O come and save us.

We pray for the church . . .
Keep us faithful in the gospel we share, giving thanks for the gift of your grace and praying always that your will be done.
Emmanuel, come; O come and save us.

We pray for the world . . .
Make a way in the wilderness of this world:
bring justice and equality to every land
and let all creatures know your saving love.
Emmanuel, come; O come and save us.

We pray for this community . . .
Send messengers of your way among us to kindle in us a passion for what is right and cleanse us from all corruption.
Emmanuel, come; O come and save us.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Let your tender mercy shine on them.
Give light to those who wait in darkness
and guide their feet to the path of peace.
Emmanuel, come; O come and save us.

Come quickly, Emmanuel, in power and glory,
to establish your realm of justice and peace;
and make us ready, on the day of redemption,
to stand before you, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. Your glory is a consuming fire; who can stand in your presence?
Yet you have prepared the way for us, with a messenger of grace.
You receive the humble offering of our lives as a precious gift.
2. Jesus Christ is our way in the wilderness:
at his word, every valley is lifted and every mountain made low;
in his body, all flesh shall see your saving power.
3. Through the power of the gospel of Jesus Christ that we share, bring to completion the good work that you began in us,
and let our love for you and for one another overflow in abundance.

Emmanuel, come; O come and save us.

Come quickly, Emmanuel, in power and glory,
to establish your realm of justice and peace;
and make us ready, on the day of redemption,
to stand before you, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. As you promised long ago, you have revealed the majesty of your name in a little child, born in Bethlehem; he is our joy and our peace.
He is our shepherd, feeding us with mercy and leading us in safety.
2. Born of Mary, Jesus Christ is our salvation and strength, the fulfillment of your word and the hope of generations.
Christ lifts up the lowly and fills the hungry with good things.
3. In Jesus Christ, help us to live according to your will.
Sanctify and shape us into the image of Christ's own body, so that our lives may be a holy offering of love and praise.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
let us pray for the life of the world,
saying: O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
With Mary, help us to treasure and ponder the gift that has been given to us, a gift of good news and great joy for all.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
With the prophets, help us to proclaim the promise of your peace for all nations and your justice for all people.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
With the shepherds, help us to keep watch over those entrusted to our care and all who need protection this night.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
With the angels, help us to offer signs of hope, comfort, and joy for all who live in fear.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, hope of the world,
help us to bear witness to your light
so that all may believe and have life in you;
in your holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. When we were living in deep darkness, you sent us your light—a child called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
All authority in heaven and on earth rests upon his shoulders.
2. Born in a stable, he is our Good Shepherd, and your holy Lamb.
Lying in a manger, he is the bread of life, food for our souls.
Praised by the heavenly host, he is the hope and joy of all the earth.
3. Teach us to renounce worldly passions and frivolous pursuits.
In this present age, let our lives be godly, upright, and self-controlled, while we await the coming in glory of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ.

For a child has been born to us:

the Savior, the Messiah, the Lord.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of glory, at the dawning of this day in the name of Jesus Christ your Son.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God our Savior, we confess

that we are not people of peace.

You call us “holy” and “redeemed,” yet we persist in our sinful ways.

We call us “sought out,” “not forsaken,”

yet we fail to seek you, our God.

Forgive us God of grace.

Build us up by your mercy and prepare a way for us to return to you at last;

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
let us pray for the life of the world,
saying: O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Inspire us to glorify and praise you with the shepherds of Bethlehem, giving thanks for every sign of your grace.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Strengthen those who work for good.
Provide generously for the poor and put an end to all oppression.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Help us to keep watch over this city.
Let it be a sign of your redemption,
a place sought out, not forsaken.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Pour out your goodness and mercy on all who are hurting this day.
Let them find new hope in you.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, hope of the world,
help us to bear witness to your light
so that all may believe and have life in you;
in your holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You keep watch over us, day and night, protecting us from enemies.
By your grace we enjoy our daily bread and the fruit of our labor.
We are your holy people—redeemed, sought out, and not forsaken.
2. Born in a stable, he is our Good Shepherd, and your holy Lamb.
Lying in a manger, he is the bread of life, food for our souls.
Praised by the heavenly host, he is the hope and joy of all the earth.
3. Continue to lead us through the waters of renewal and rebirth, bathed in the blessing of your Holy Spirit and the grace of Jesus Christ, so that we may be heirs of your promise of everlasting life.

CALL TO WORSHIP

May accompany the lighting of Advent candles

Hear the good news of the gospel:

The time of salvation has come.

God's Word now dwells among us, full of grace and truth.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy God, all-glorious giver of grace,
you are light shining in darkness;
you are life, the life of all people.
Fill us with the light and life of Christ,
through whom all things were made,
so that we may be faithful disciples, bearing witness to your grace and truth;
through Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God our Savior, we confess
that we are not people of peace.
You offer us your way of truth,
yet we prefer the ways of falsehood.
You offer us your light of life,
yet we remain in darkness and death.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Do not let us be overcome by evil.
Overcome our evil with your good,
so that we may give you glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ,
let us pray for the life of the world,
saying: O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Let us be a light in the darkness, bearing witness to your light
and to your way of grace and truth.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Establish your long-awaited realm of righteousness, justice, and equity.
Let the whole creation sing your praise.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Make us messengers of your peace, proclaiming good news to all and building up our ruined cities.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Speak your life-giving word to all who are suffering this day.
Lead them to a new beginning in you.
O Christ, our light, hear our prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, hope of the world,
help us to bear witness to your light
so that all may believe and have life in you;
in your holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. All the ends of the earth have seen your saving power, O Lord.
From the ruined cities to the highest mountains, we sing your praise:
How beautiful is the messenger of your peace, who brings salvation!
2. Jesus was with you in the beginning; through him all things came to be.
Now he has come to live among us—your Word made flesh—and we have seen his glory, full of grace and truth.
3. As you have spoken to us through the prophets and apostles, continue to speak to us through your Son, Jesus Christ.
Sustain us by your powerful Word, until we worship you in glory.

The Time after Epiphany / Ordinary Time

These liturgical texts, based primarily on the Scriptures of the Revised Common Lectionary, Year C, are appropriate for use throughout the time after Epiphany and may be repeated from week to week.

CALL TO CONFESSION

At the baptismal font:

When we pass through deep waters or go through times of fiery trial,
the Lord our God is with us.
Isaiah 43:2

Trusting in God's grace,
let us confess our sin.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Lifting water from the baptismal font:

Do not fear, says the Lord,
for I have redeemed you.
I have called you by name; you are mine.
Isaiah 43:1

In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!
Thanks be to God.

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

At the lectern or pulpit:

Creator of all that is in the heavens and on the earth,
quiet the chatter of our minds and still the anxiety of our hearts so we can hear your wisdom
in all its rich variety, and in hearing, let that deep wisdom sink into our lives,
so that we may joyfully bear your light
in all we do and say. Amen.

Before the readings:

Listen for the Word of God, shaking the wilderness.
Psalm 29:8

After the readings:

Powerful and full of majesty
is the voice of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

ASCRPTION OF PRAISE

After the sermon:

And in the temple of the Lord,
the people of God say: Glory! Amen.
Psalm 29:9

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Time after Epiphany, Baptism of the Lord

We believe that the unity of the people of God must be manifested and be active in a variety of ways:
that we share one faith, have one calling,
are of one soul and one mind;
have one God and Father,
are filled with one Spirit,
are baptized with one baptism,
eat of one bread and drink of one cup, confess one name,
are obedient to one Lord,
work for one cause, and share one hope.

Adapted from the Confession of Belbar

Time after Epiphany, Transfiguration of the Lord

We believe that the church must together come to know the height and the breadth and the depth of the love of Christ.
We believe that together we are built up to the stature of Christ, the new humanity.
We believe that we must together know and bear one another's burdens, thereby fulfilling the law of Christ.
We believe that we are called to admonish and comfort one another;
to suffer with one another for the sake of righteousness;
to pray together;
and together serve God in this world.

INVITATION TO OFFERING

At the communion table:

God has prepared an abundant feast of grace and blessing for us.
Let us share these good gifts with the world.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

At the communion table:

Gathering God,
you create us and redeem us;
you call us by name
and we are precious in your sight.
This good news overwhelms us with joy.
With gratitude we give you all that we have and all that we are.
May these gifts be expressions of your great delight for your people in all the places of the earth. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

At the communion table:

Loving and gracious God,
from east and west,
from north and south,
you have gathered us at your table,
called us your beloved,
and fed us from your body.
Transform us to be your body in the world, and fortify us by your Spirit,
so that we may serve you and our neighbors with great joy. Amen.

BLESSING AND CHARGE

At the doors of the church:

May the blessing of the Lord our God,
the grace of Jesus Christ,
and the power of the Holy Spirit
be with you now and forever. Alleluia!
Luke 4:18-19

In the name of Jesus,
bring good news to the poor. Amen.

Lectionary Readings

Isaiah 43:1–7 Do not fear, I am with you; I have called you by name, you are mine.
Psalm 29 Glorify the name of the Lord, who reigns over the waters.
Acts 8:14–17 People previously baptized in Jesus' name receive the Holy Spirit.
Luke 3:15–17, 21–22 John baptizes Jesus; the Spirit descends; God says: You are my Son.

CALL TO WORSHIP

From the north and south we come;
from the east and west God calls us.
Over the mighty waters, the Lord speaks:
I have called you by name; you are mine.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Gracious God, in Jesus Christ, baptized by John in the Jordan,
you came to share our life
and deliver us from sin and death.
As we are baptized with water,
pour out your Holy Spirit upon us
to make us your beloved children;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God our Redeemer, we confess
that our lives do not reflect your glory.
You walk with us in times of trial,
but we abandon others in trouble.
You pour out your love for us,
but we fail to share your mercy.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Send us your Holy Spirit to cleanse and recreate us
so that we may honor your name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Make us a people of your Word and Spirit
so that we may live as true disciples of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

We pray for the world . . .
Gather up all the lost and forsaken from the troubled places of the earth;
redeem and restore their lives.
O God of grace, bless us with peace.

We pray for this community . . .
Help us, like John, to point to Christ, preparing the way for your holy realm of righteousness and justice.
O God of grace, bless us with peace.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Support those who are suffering.
Let them know they are precious to you.
Call them by name and hold them close.

Psalm 36:5–10 The steadfast love of the Lord is great; in God is the fountain of life.
1 Corinthians 12:1–11 Each of us has gifts from the Spirit, given for the common good.

Here we feast at the table of grace.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Loving God, in your providence and care
we believe the best things are yet to come.

so that we may taste and see your glory
at the marriage feast of heaven and earth;
through Christ, living water and true vine.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God our Redeemer, we confess
that our lives do not reflect your glory.
We have been fickle and unfaithful,
but your steadfast love never fails.
We try to save the best for ourselves,

the first sign of his glory, so that the world might know that even better things were yet to come.
3. Pour out wisdom, knowledge, faith, and healing;
pour out miracles, prophecy—all for the common good,
so that the world will know that Jesus is Lord.

so that we may accept and follow
Jesus as our Savior and Lord.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God our Redeemer, we confess
that our lives do not reflect your glory.
You are loving, patient, and kind;
we are envious, boastful, and arrogant.
You rejoice in the truth;
we revel in our wrongdoing.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Put an end to our selfish ways and teach us to love one another as you have loved us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Joining our hearts and minds in prayer,
let us call on the name of the Lord,
saying: O God of grace, bless us with peace.

We pray for the church . . .
Help us to be a true and living sign of the faith, hope, and love we have in you, reaching out for the life of the world.

Uproot systems of oppression,
weed out violence and corruption,
and plant new seeds of life and hope.

We pray for this community . . .
Rescue those who are in trouble in our streets and in our homes.
Protect the vulnerable from danger.
O God of grace, bless us with peace.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Comfort and heal those who are sick,
and give us the wisdom and grace
to help them in their suffering.
O God of grace, bless us with peace.

Mighty God, strengthen your people so that we may live in the world as those you have chosen and called;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Ash Wednesday

We believe that, for God, pure and undefiled religion is to visit the orphans and the widows in their suffering.

We believe that God wishes to teach the church to do what is good
and to seek the right.

Season of Lent / Passion/Palm Sunday

We believe that Christ's work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another.

We believe that unity is, therefore, both a gift and an obligation for the church of Jesus Christ.

We believe that, through the working of God's Spirit, it is a binding force, yet simultaneously a reality which must be earnestly pursued and sought: one which the people of God must continually be built up to attain.

Adapted from the Confession of Belhar

Maundy Thursday

We believe that the unity of the people of God must be manifested and be active in a variety of ways:

in that we love one another; that we experience, practice, and pursue community with one another; that we are obligated to give ourselves willingly and joyfully to be of benefit and blessing to one another.

Good Friday

We believe that the unity of the church must become visible

so that the world may believe that separation, enmity, and hatred between people and groups is sin which Christ has already conquered, and accordingly that anything which threatens this unity may have no place in the church and must be resisted.

INVITATION TO OFFERING

At the communion table:

All that we seek to accomplish,
all that we strive to achieve,
all that we claim to possess—
all of this amounts to nothing without the grace of Christ.

With gratitude, let us offer our lives to the Lord.

Philippians 3:7–8

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

At the communion table:

O God, we trust you to be our refuge and fortress in good times and in times of trouble.
Use the gifts we share today to provide shelter for those who are homeless, food for those who are hungry, comfort for those who are afflicted,
and freedom for those who are oppressed.
We commit to you the gift of our money
and the gifts of our lives,
so that we may be instruments of your healing in the world. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

At the communion table:

We give you thanks, O God,
for here at your table you have transformed us from independent individuals into the body of Christ.
Make us strong for your service that we may be messengers of your reconciling love for all people. Amen.

BLESSING AND CHARGE

At the doors of the church:

May the Spirit of the triune God strengthen and sustain you,
all throughout these forty days
and into the life that is to come. Amen.

Luke 4:1–2

Paul Soupiset

Go in peace,
proclaiming the message of reconciliation
God has entrusted to us. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus as we pray for the world he came to save, saying: Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Bring us through every obstacle and trial so that we might be a living sign of the new life you offer to all.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Put an end to war and destruction.
Let the people of every nation learn your ways of grace and peace.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Help us to share our food with the hungry, to welcome the homeless, clothe the naked, and never to hide from neighbors in need.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Look with healing and compassion on those who are troubled by sickness or sin.
Deliver them from every evil.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

As we pour out our hearts in prayer, O God, lead us to pour out our lives in service to you—ever seeking your will, ever following your way; all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You are gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
The fast that you desire is righteousness and justice, compassion and peace:
to feed the hungry, help the poor, welcome the stranger, and set captives free.
2. Jesus teaches sincerity of faith, and purity of heart in prayer and action—not to make a spectacle of worship or charity, but to seek the inner gifts of grace;
not to store up treasures on earth, but to trust the heavenly treasure of your love.
3. Keep us faithful through hardship and suffering, hunger and sleepless nights.
Grant us purity, patience, kindness, holiness, truthful speech, and genuine love, so that we may be reconciled to you through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Sunday in Lent Color: Purple

Lectionary Readings

Deuteronomy 26:1–11 We cried to the Lord, God of our ancestors, and God delivered us.
Psalm 91:1–2, 9–16 The Lord says: I will deliver and protect those who call on me.
Romans 10:8b–13 The word is near to you; those who call on the Lord will be saved.
Luke 4:1–13 For forty days in the wilderness, Jesus is tempted by the devil.

CALL TO WORSHIP

In the wilderness of life, we have hope:
We live by the Word of the Lord.
In the face of temptation, we proclaim:
We worship the Lord our God alone.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

O Lord our God,
as you sent Jesus into the wilderness
full of the Holy Spirit, send us your Spirit now
to sustain us through these forty days.
Nourish us with your grace, deliver us from temptation,
and bear us up in the hands of angels;
for the sake of Christ our Savior.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess
that we have sinned against you.
We desire earthly kingdoms and dismiss your heavenly realm.
We seek to provide for ourselves and spurn the bread of life you offer.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Teach us to rely on your saving word,
to trust in your sustaining care,
and to worship and serve you alone;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lent

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus as we pray for the world he came to save, saying: Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Help us to confess with our lips, believe in our hearts, and show in our lives that Christ Jesus is our risen Lord.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Let the milk and honey of your promised land flow in every nation of the earth,
so that all may enjoy the fruit of salvation.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Let us be angels of your mercy, surrounding all who are in danger and lifting up those who are falling.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Deliver and protect them,
be with them in their trouble,
and satisfy them with long life.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

As we pour out our hearts in prayer, O God,
lead us to pour out our lives in service to you—
ever seeking your will, ever following your way;
all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. When our ancestors were slaves in Egypt, strangers in the land, you saw our suffering, heard our cries, and came to deliver us—bringing us out of captivity into a land flowing with milk and honey.
2. Tested for forty days in the wilderness, Jesus taught us to seek nourishment in your word, to worship and serve you alone, and to commit our lives to your providence and protection.
3. Put your word of faith on our lips and in our hearts so that we may confess that Jesus Christ the Lord is risen from the dead.
Save us when we call upon your name!

Second Sunday in Lent Color: Purple

Lectionary Readings

Genesis 15:1–12, 17–18 Abram believes in the Lord; God makes a covenant with Abram.
Psalm 27 I believe I will see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living.
Philippians 3:17—4:1 God will transform our humiliation into glory; stand firm in the Lord.
Luke 13:31–35 Jesus laments: Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets!
or Luke 9:28–36 On a mountaintop, Jesus is transfigured; God says: This is my Son.

CALL TO WORSHIP

As Jesus wept for Jerusalem, our hearts also break
for all creation and humanity.
As citizens of heaven,
where the Lord Jesus Christ lives,
we eagerly wait for his return.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Loving God, as Jesus wept with a mother's tenderness over the city of Jerusalem, give us the spirit of compassion to grieve the suffering of the world, and give us the strength of will
to seek your peace in every place;
in Jesus' name we pray.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess
that we have sinned against you.
We put our trust in wicked leaders and reject the prophets you send.
We prosper as friends of the empire and live as enemies of your cross.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Cast out the demons within us.
Cure the evil in our hearts.
Continue the work you have begun in us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus
as we pray for the world he came to save,
saying: Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Transform our shame into your glory.
Help us to live as citizens of heaven,
watching for the coming of our Savior.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Show your compassion to the nations.
Give shelter to the poor and oppressed
as a hen gathers her young under her wing.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Put an end to the violence among us.
Let your goodness and grace be known in the land of the living.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Be the light and the salvation of all who are suffering this day.
Let their hearts take courage in you.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

As we pour out our hearts in prayer, O God,
lead us to pour out our lives in service to you—
ever seeking your will, ever following your way;
all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. Abraham believed in you, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness.
You made a covenant with him, providing a great land for his offspring, promising that his descendants would outnumber the stars.
2. Jesus healed the sick, fed the hungry, and cast out demons, seeking to gather your children as a hen shelters her brood beneath her wings.
He wept over Jerusalem when we rejected his saving love.
3. Help us to stand firm in the faith, as citizens of heaven, awaiting the coming of our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ.
By the power of Christ, transform our humiliation into glory.

Psalm 63:1–8 O God, you are my God, I seek you; my soul thirsts for you.
1 Corinthians 10:1–13 Our ancestors crossed the sea; they drank from Christ, the rock.

What more do we need?

The Lord has made an everlasting covenant and promised unfailing love.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of judgment and mercy,
as Jesus taught your holy way
and called all people to repent, help us to turn to you and live;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess

that we have sinned against you.

We shake our heads at others' calamity,
yet ignore the signs of our own destruction.

We enjoy a prized place in your garden,
yet year after year fail to bear good fruit.

Forgive us, God of grace.

Give us the wisdom to repent and be reconciled to you,

so that we may have the gift of life;

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus
as we pray for the world he came to save,
saying: Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

Let us be an oasis in the desert—
a spring of water for all who thirst, an abundant feast for all who hunger.

By your everlasting covenant, embrace all the nations of this earth with your steadfast, saving love.

ever seeking your will, ever following your way;
all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You made an everlasting covenant with us, though we forsook your way.
Still, you call the thirsty to come to the waters;
you invite the poor and hungry to come and eat.
2. Jesus calls us to repent, so that we might not perish.
Like a gardener Jesus tends to us with loving care, waiting patiently for our lives to bear the fruit of his grace.
3. Provide us with spiritual food and drink in the wilderness as you have done for our brothers and sisters who passed through the sea.
Do not test us beyond our strength, but strengthen us for service.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Bring healing and peace to all who suffer, especially to families that are divided. Watch over those who are far from home. Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

As we pour out our hearts in prayer, O God, lead us to pour out our lives in service to you—ever seeking your will, ever following your way; all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. For forty years, you fed us with the bread of heaven in the wilderness.
Now we stand on the edge of the promised land, giving thanks that you have rolled away the heavy stone of our shame.
2. Jesus came to seek the lost and restore the dead to life.
Though we have lived wastefully, squandering our inheritance, by his grace we are your beloved children.
3. Make us a new creation in Christ; reconcile us to yourself, so that we may bear your message of reconciliation to all the world.
Let us be ambassadors for Christ, ministers of your grace and peace.

Lectionary Readings

Isaiah 43:16–21	I am about to do a new thing, says the Lord; do you perceive it?
Psalm 126	When the Lord restored our fortunes, we shouted with joy.
Philippians 3:4b–14	Knowing Christ Jesus as Lord, I regard everything else as loss.
John 12:1–8	At the home of Lazarus, Mary anoints Jesus feet with perfume.

Like Mary, who lavished her treasure on the feet of Christ,
we come now to worship and offer ourselves to the Lord.

The things we once treasured are worthless,
compared with the infinite value of knowing Christ Jesus!

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of extravagant love,
as Mary anointed Jesus' feet with precious perfume, anoint us with your mercy.
Make us ready for the day when you will pour out your grace
at the foot of the cross, through the costly self-offering of our Savior and Lord.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess
that we have sinned against you.
We fix our minds on former things,
missing the new thing you are doing.
We focus on worldly treasure and gain, forgetting the value of knowing Christ.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Through the great mystery of faith deliver us from our captivity to sin and lead us from death to life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus as we pray for the world he came to save, saying: Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Help us to know our Lord Jesus Christ, and the surpassing value of life in him, so that others may know Christ through us. Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Show us the new thing you are doing. Stop the wheels of the chariots of war. Bring new life to your damaged creation. Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Give us a genuine concern for the poor, using the treasure you entrust to us for the well-being of all people. Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Remember those who are sick and suffering. Restore their fortunes, by your grace. Turn tears of sorrow into shouts of joy. Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

As we pour out our hearts in prayer, O God, lead us to pour out our lives in service to you—ever seeking your will, ever following your way; all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You made a way through the sea, a path through the waters. Even now you are doing a new thing—making rivers flow in the desert, forming a people for yourself, that we might declare your praise.
2. You anointed Jesus Christ with the gift of your Holy Spirit—a healing balm, and a fragrant offering of love for the world. He is our Passover, our only hope for salvation.
3. Teach us to know the surpassing grace of Jesus Christ our Lord: sharing in his suffering and rejoicing in the power of his resurrection, pressing on toward the goal to which you have called us.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Liturgy of the Palms

Jesus rode a donkey into Jerusalem.

Hosanna! Blessed is the King
who comes in the name of the Lord!

The people laid down their garments and praised God.

Hosanna! Blessed is the King
who comes in the name of the Lord!

If the people keep quiet,
even the stones will cry out.

Hosanna! Blessed is the King
who comes in the name of the Lord!

Liturgy of the Passion

Christ sat at table with his disciples, preparing the kingdom of God to be fulfilled.

Christ has prayed that our faith might not fail,
for the kingdom of God should be fulfilled.

Christ prayed that his burden might be lifted,
but the kingdom of God must be fulfilled.

Christ submitted himself to the cross.
Praise God! The kingdom of God is fulfilled!

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

To you, O God, we cry:
Hosanna! Lord, save us!
Let this be our constant prayer—
as we dance among the palms,
as we sit around the table,
as we kneel before the cross,
as we bow our heads in sorrow.
To you, O God, we cry:
Hosanna! Lord, save us!
In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess
that we have sinned against you.
The lips that sing "Hosanna!"
are the same that shout "Crucify!"
The hands that wave palm branches are the same that prepare your cross.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Look upon us with mercy—
our lives are in your hands.
Save us, by your steadfast love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayers of the People

Let us have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus as we pray for the world he came to save, saying: Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
On this day of triumph and tragedy help us to bear witness to the saving grace of our suffering Lord.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Help the victims of violence in every land.
Give peace to those who live in fear and dignity to those who are despised.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Teach us the self-emptying way of Jesus Christ.
Humble the proud and lift up the lowly until we know that all are equal in your sight.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Be gracious to all who are in distress.
Hold their lives in your hand and look upon them with healing.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

As we pour out our hearts in prayer, O God,
lead us to pour out our lives in service to you—
ever seeking your will, ever following your way;
all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

1. In our suffering and sorrow, we trust in your saving power, for you are good and gracious; our lives are in your hands.
With you as our helper, we will not be put to shame.
2. Betrayed and denied by those whom he loved,
Jesus surrendered himself to death—death on a cross.
There he gave his life in love for the world.
3. By your Spirit, let us share the mind of Christ, who emptied himself, suffering shame and death,
so that all might know the fullness of your glory.

Exodus 12:1–4 (5–10) 11–14 Before the Exodus, the Lord gives instructions for the Passover.
Psalm 116:1–2, 12–19 What shall I return to the Lord? I will lift the cup of salvation.
1 Corinthians 11:23–26 Paul recounts and interprets the tradition of the Lord's Supper.
John 13:1–17, 31b–35 Jesus washes the disciples' feet and gives a new commandment.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Christ set the example for the disciples:

Wash the feet of your brothers;
wash the feet of your sisters.

Christ set an example for us,
that we might also do as he has done.

Let us love one another in Jesus' name.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy God, source and sovereign, you put all power and authority into the hands of Christ—
Christ, who washes our feet in humble service.
Teach us to love one another
as Christ has loved us, so that everyone will know that we are his disciples;
through Jesus Christ, our Teacher and Lord,
we pray. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess
that we have sinned against you.
Jesus taught us how to serve,

and share in the life you offer;

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus as we pray for the world he came to save, saying: Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Make us bold in love and humble in service, according to the example of Christ Jesus, our teacher and Lord.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Deliver the oppressed; set captives free.
Lead them safely out of bondage into your land of promise, plenty, and peace.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Keep watch in every heart and home, so that we may live in peace and safety and be delivered from all evil.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Be near to all who are in trouble, those who are sick, and those who face death.
Hold them close and love them to the end.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

As we pour out our hearts in prayer, O God, lead us to pour out our lives in service to you—ever seeking your will, ever following your way; all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. With your people Israel, we remember how you have saved us—sheltering us from the plagues of sin and death, leading us through the waters to deliver us.
2. Kneeling down in humility to wash his disciples' feet, Jesus gave us a new commandment: to love one another. By this love, the world will know that we are his disciples.
3. Help us to hand on to others what we have received from you: the gift of your grace and the promise of salvation in Christ. As often as we do this, let our lives proclaim your love.

Good Friday
Color: No Color

Lectionary Readings

Isaiah 52:13—53:12 The innocent servant suffers; surely he has borne our sin.
Psalm 22 A desperate prayer of lament turns to thanksgiving and praise.
Hebrews 10:16–25 Jesus opens the sanctuary for us; trust in him, for he is faithful.
or Hebrews 4:14–16; 5:7–9 In Jesus, we have a great high priest who knows our weakness.
John 18:1—19:42 Jesus is arrested, put on trial, crucified, and buried.

CALL TO WORSHIP

We have a great high priest, Christ Jesus,
who has passed through the heavens.
Let us hold fast to our confession.
We have a great high priest, Christ Jesus,
who has been tested as we are, yet without sin.
Let us approach the throne of grace with boldness, to receive mercy and help in our hour of need.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Loving God,
you sent Jesus Christ to save us.
We have betrayed him.
We have denied him.
We have abandoned, mocked, and crucified him.
Have mercy, O God,
have mercy on us;
through Jesus Christ, our only hope. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Merciful God, we confess
that we have sinned against you.
We despise and reject your servant,
like a lamb led to the slaughter.
We betray and deny our Lord,
the one you sent to save us.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Even in this hour of anguish show us the light of your salvation and lead us to new life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

GOOD FRIDAY

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Let us have the same mind that was in Christ Jesus
as we pray for the world he came to save,
saying: Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Even in the shadow of the cross help us to point to the good news of Jesus Christ our Savior.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Draw all people closer to you and closer to one another through the outstretched arms of Christ our Lord.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Be near to all who are in trouble this day.
Deliver them from danger
so that they may live to praise your name.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Give wholeness and healing
by the grace of the suffering servant
who bears our afflictions and carries our diseases.
Have mercy, O God; hear our prayer.

As we pour out our hearts in prayer, O God,
lead us to pour out our lives in service to you—
ever seeking your will, ever following your way;
all in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

At the baptismal font:

The Lord says: Come.

Let anyone who wishes
take the water of life as a gift.

Revelation 22:17

Trusting in God's grace,
let us confess our sin.

DECLARATION OF FORGIVENESS

Lifting water from the baptismal font:

The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints.

Revelation 22:21

In the name of Jesus Christ, we are forgiven!

Thanks be to God.

At the lectern or pulpit:

God of abundant life,
you have made this day,
and so we rejoice
and are glad in it.

By the gift of your Spirit,
tune our hearts and minds to hear your living Word afresh
in this day and for this time.
May our lives answer your eternal Word with resurrection hope. Amen.

Before the readings:

Testimony for the church
from Jesus, the Alpha and Omega.

Revelation 22:13–14

After the readings:

These words are trustworthy and true.

Thanks be to God.

ASCRPTION OF PRAISE

After the sermon:

Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen.

Revelation 7:12

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Season of Easter, Ascension of the Lord

We believe that God's life-giving Word and Spirit has conquered the powers of sin and death,
and therefore also
of irreconciliation and hatred, bitterness and enmity,
that God's life-giving Word and Spirit will enable the church to live in a new obedience which can open new possibilities of life for society and the world.

Adapted from the Confession of Belbar

Day of Pentecost

We believe that the unity of the church can be established only in freedom and not under constraint;
and that the variety of spiritual gifts,
opportunities, backgrounds, and convictions,
as well as the various languages and cultures,
are, by virtue of our reconciliation in Christ, opportunities for mutual service
and enrichment,
within the one visible people of God.
We believe that true faith in Jesus Christ is the only condition for membership in this church.

Adapted from the Confession of Belhar

INVITATION TO OFFERING

At the communion table:

Looking forward to that day
when people will hunger and thirst no more,
and God will wipe away every tear,
and we will worship with all the saints around the throne of the Lamb,
let us offer our lives to the Lord.

Revelation 7:15–17

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

At the communion table:

With glad rejoicing we bring you our gifts,
God of great abundance.
May these gifts and all the gifts of our lives be part of what you are doing in the world to turn mourning into dancing and to bring joy throughout your creation,
so that all your creatures might praise you,
singing: Blessing, honor, and glory to you! Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

At the communion table:

Here at this table we celebrate resurrection
as you feed us with bread and wine.
And as much as we might prefer to stay here in this protected place, you send us back to our work—
only it is no longer the same work because we know you are with us and in us, shaping and transforming us
to be your witnesses in the world.
Nourished in body, mind, and spirit,
may all that we say and do give you glory. Amen.

BLESSING AND CHARGE

At the doors of the church:

The blessing of the eternal, triune God—
Alpha and Omega,
first and last,
beginning and end—
be with you all. Alleluia!

Revelation 22:13

Come, Lord Jesus! Amen.

Revelation 22:20

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. By your wisdom, you created the world and everything in it.
By your power, you have delivered us from evil in every age.
By your mercy, you have promised never to forsake us.
2. Before the rising of the sun on the first day of the week, Jesus rose from the dead! With the first believers,
we bear witness to this good news of great joy.
3. As we have been buried with Christ by baptism into death, raise us up, by the power of your Spirit, to walk in new life.
Let us be dead to sin and alive to you in Christ Jesus.

or Isaiah 65:17–25	God promises a new creation, where all creatures will live in safety.
Psalm 118:1–2, 14–24	I will not die, I will live; this is the day that the Lord has made.
1 Corinthians 15:19–26	As death came through Adam, resurrection comes through Christ.
or Acts 10:34–43	Peter testifies to Jesus' death and resurrection; Jesus is Lord of all.
John 20:1–18	At the empty tomb, the risen Lord appears to Mary Magdalene.
or Luke 24:1–12	Women find Jesus' tomb empty; he has been raised from the dead.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Mary Magdalene discovered the empty tomb.

Alleluia!

Peter ran to the tomb and was amazed.

Christ is risen!

God raised Christ from the dead on the third day.

Alleluia! Christ is risen indeed!

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Living God, we praise you—for the day that you have made;
for the life that you have given;
for the church that you have called.
Let this day be filled with wonder;
let our lives proclaim the message;
let your church sing out the news—that Christ, our Lord and Savior, is risen from the dead.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of everlasting life, we confess
that we continue in the ways of death.
You have announced your new creation,
but we put our hope in former things.
You have opened the door of the tomb,
but we close our hearts to our neighbors.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Make us people of the resurrection, proclaiming the destruction of death and the gift of glorious new life in you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rejoicing in God's promise of new creation,
let us pray to the Maker of heaven and earth,
saying: God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Make us faithful witnesses to the resurrection, proclaiming the hope that is ours in Christ
for the sake of the world he came to save.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Bring justice and peace to all the nations,
so that the lamb and wolf may feed together
and all may enjoy the fruit of their own labor.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Put an end to the prejudice and partiality that divide neighbors from one another.
Help us to seek what is good and right for all.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Redeem them from the power of death,
so that they may tell your mighty work
and celebrate your steadfast love.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, keep us working and praying
for the coming of your holy realm of peace,
when we will share abundant life with you;
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You have promised us a new creation of peace and joy, where the wolf and the lamb will dwell together
and no one will hurt or destroy on your holy mountain.
2. Early on the first day of the week, Jesus' disciples went to his tomb, only to find it empty.
There they discovered that he had risen indeed.
3. Through the resurrection of Jesus Christ our Lord give us new hope in the life of the world to come, when you will conquer every enemy—even death itself.

Lectionary Readings

Isaiah 25:6–9	A feast on the day of the Lord; God will swallow up death forever.
Psalm 114	The earth shakes and the sea retreats in the presence of the Lord.
1 Corinthians 5:6b–8	Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us keep the feast.
Luke 24:13–49	On the road to Emmaus, two disciples meet the risen Lord.

CALL TO WORSHIP

The Lord has prepared a feast for us,
the long-awaited feast of victory.
Now Christ our passover is sacrificed.
Therefore let us keep the feast.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Lord Jesus Christ,
stay with us this evening.
Open our minds
to understand your word.
Open our hearts
to know that you are with us.
Then send us out in joy to share the good news
that you are risen indeed!
In your holy name we pray.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of everlasting life, we confess
that we continue in the ways of death.
You walk with us in our sorrow,
yet we fail to recognize you.
You show us that Christ is risen,
yet doubts persist in our hearts.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Open our hearts and minds to understand and believe the good news of the resurrection;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rejoicing in God's promise of new creation,
let us pray to the Maker of heaven and earth,
saying: God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Clean out the things that pollute our life together—malice, evil, bitterness, envy, sorrow, strife—
so that we may celebrate the feast of life with joy.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Pour out your mercy on all people and nations.
Let the whole earth tremble, dance, and sing with the good news of your liberating love.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Wipe away all the tears of our neighbors.
Take away the sin and shame that separate us.
Extend your table until all people are fed.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Walk beside those who are suffering in sorrow.
Proclaim to them the promise of your word and nourish them with your healing presence.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, keep us working and praying
for the coming of your holy realm of peace,
when we will share abundant life with you;
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. With gladness, we rejoice in your saving power.
On the mountain of your glory, you set a feast for us.
You dry our tears; you swallow up death forever.
2. We give you thanks that the risen Lord still meets us, opening our minds to the truth of your word,
sharing his life with us in the breaking of bread.
3. As we keep the feast of the paschal lamb, nourish us with the bread of your presence,
so that we may worship you in truth each day.

Lectionary Readings

Acts 9:1–6 (7–20) On the road to Damascus, Saul sees a blinding light and is converted.
Psalm 30 O Lord, you brought me up from the grave; my soul praises you.
Revelation 5:11–14 The choirs of heaven sing: Worthy is the Lamb that was slain! Amen!
John 21:1–19 A miraculous catch of fish; Jesus tells Simon Peter: Feed my sheep.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Because we love our Lord Jesus Christ,
we will feed his lambs.
Because we love our Lord Jesus Christ,
we will tend his sheep.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Risen Savior, Jesus Christ, as you appeared by the sea and surprised your disciples with a miraculous catch of fish, surprise us this day
with the fullness of your grace,
so that we may truly know that you are our Lord
and you are risen indeed.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of everlasting life, we confess
that we continue in the ways of death.
We fail to love and feed the sheep that you have given us to tend.
We stand by while some are threatened and even participate in persecution.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Change the path we are on,
show us the light of your way,
and send us forth to serve you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rejoicing in God's promise of new creation,
let us pray to the Maker of heaven and earth,
saying: God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Give us glad hearts and full voices to sing glory and honor and blessing to you with all the saints around your throne.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Protect those who are the victims of violence, threats, and persecution.
Convert oppressors to your way of peace.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Help us to feed, tend, and care for those you have entrusted to us.
Let our love show your love.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Remember all who suffer or grieve.
Turn their mourning into dancing and their sorrow into joy.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, keep us working and praying
for the coming of your holy realm of peace,
when we will share abundant life with you;
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You are our light in darkness, our way in the world.
When, like Saul, we resist your sovereign voice,
you come with blinding insight, calling us to conversion.
2. The risen Christ still surprises us with his presence, inviting us to follow him, to come and eat with him;
calling us to love him and to feed the sheep of his flock.
3. Teach us the songs of saints and angels around your throne, so that we too may fall down and worship you, singing: "Worthy is the Lamb!"

Fourth Sunday of Easter Colors: White and Gold

Lectionary Readings

Acts 9:36–43	Peter raises Tabitha from the dead; many believe in the Lord.
Psalm 23	The Lord is my shepherd, leading, protecting, and feeding me.
Revelation 7:9–17	The redeemed worship at the throne of the Lamb, their shepherd.
John 10:22–30	Jesus says: My sheep hear my voice; I know them and they follow me.

CALL TO WORSHIP

John saw a multitude from every land and tribe and nation.

Glory and power be to our God
forever and ever!

The angels fell on their faces and worshiped the Lord.

Glory and power be to our God
forever and ever!

The shepherd will guide the flock
to the springs of water,
and wipe away every tear from their eyes.

Glory and power be to our God
forever and ever! Amen!

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Christ Jesus, our Good Shepherd, we are the people of your pasture and the sheep of your hand.
Help us to listen to your voice
so that we might believe in you, live according to your promise,
and serve your purpose in the world;
in your holy name we pray.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of everlasting life, we confess
that we continue in the ways of death.
We see your work in our world and still do not believe in you.
We listen to other leaders and ignore your loving voice.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Restore us to your flock and fold so that we may believe and receive eternal and abundant life in you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rejoicing in God's promise of new creation,
let us pray to the Maker of heaven and earth,
saying: God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Give us the grace to stand with those who are washed in the blood of the Lamb and now worship at your throne in glory.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Feed the hungry; give drink to the thirsty.
Guide them to the springs of the water of life
and wipe away every tear from their eyes.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Let us be faithful disciples in this place, devoted to good works and charity and humbly serving others in your name.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Walk with those who are in dark valleys.
Comfort them and protect them from harm.
Show them your goodness and mercy.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, keep us working and praying
for the coming of your holy realm of peace,
when we will share abundant life with you;
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You are our shepherd, O Lord, and in you there is nothing we lack.
You lead us to green pastures and still waters; you restore our souls.
You prepare a table before us; the cup of blessing overflows!
2. Christ Jesus is one with you, O God;
he is our good shepherd, and we are the people of your pasture.
We hear his voice and seek to follow him.
3. Let us join the great multitude of the redeemed of the world who worship day and night in the presence of the Lamb.
Feed our hunger, quench our thirst, and lead us to the water of life.

Revelation 21:1–6	A new heaven and earth; a holy city; God's home is among mortals.
John 13:31–35	Jesus gives a new commandment: love one another as I love you.

CALL TO WORSHIP

God is making all things new.
The thirsty receive the water of life.
The Holy Spirit fell upon Peter.
God gives all the repentance that leads to life.
Jesus has given us a new commandment.
We will love one another as Christ loved us.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Lord Jesus Christ, show us your glory
so that we may know the glory of God.
Good Shepherd, teach us your way
so that we may follow you all our lives.
Beloved of God, give us your love
so that we may truly love one another.
All this we pray in your holy name.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of everlasting life, we confess
that we continue in the ways of death.
You show your love for us in Jesus,
but we fail to love one another.
You give us freedom in the Spirit,
but we deny the freedom of others.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Help us to learn and keep your new commandment of love
so that all will know we are yours;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rejoicing in God's promise of new creation,
let us pray to the Maker of heaven and earth,
saying: God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Make your home among us, O God.
Let us be a true and trustworthy sign of the new thing you are doing.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Heal the suffering of your creation.
Let all creatures join together in praise for your renewal of the earth.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Give us a new dream, a new vision of your amazing love for all people, without prejudice or partiality.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Be with them in their suffering.
Wipe away the tears from their eyes.
Let mourning, crying, and pain be no more.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, keep us working and praying
for the coming of your holy realm of peace,
when we will share abundant life with you;
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. The sun and moon and shining stars praise your name;
the creatures of the earth and sky and sea all glorify you.
Women and men, young and old give thanks for your saving love.
2. Though Christ has ascended to reign with you in glory, he left us this commandment: to love one another, as he loves us.
By this love, the world will know that we are his disciples.
3. Make a home among us; let us be your people, as you are our God.
Show us a glimpse of your new creation, your new heaven and earth, and let us drink from the wellspring of everlasting life.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of everlasting life, we confess
that we continue in the ways of death.
While Jesus was with us on earth,
we dismissed him as a heavenly dreamer.
Now that he reigns in heaven
we forget that he is Lord of all the earth.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Be the sovereign of our lives and make us always ready to welcome your return in glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Rejoicing in God's promise of new creation,
let us pray to the Maker of heaven and earth,
saying: God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Keep us ever faithful in our worship and service, bearing witness to what Christ has done among us
and to the hope of his coming in glory to reign.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Let your majesty shine; let your mercy rain down.
Humble the leaders of the nations;
teach them to serve with justice and peace.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Encourage those who watch and wait for justice.
Empower them with the gifts of your Spirit to live, even now, in the light of your holy realm.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Put your heavenly, healing power to work in the lives of all who are suffering or sick.
Fill them with the fullness of life you offer.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, keep us working and praying
for the coming of your holy realm of peace,
when we will share abundant life with you;
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You are robed in majesty and glory, girded in mercy and strength.
You established the world—the heavens, the earth, the seas.
From age to age you reign; from everlasting you are God.
2. Jesus came to fulfill the law, the prophets, and the psalms.
After he rose from the dead, he ascended to heaven to reign.
With joy we worship him and bless your name.
3. Give us your Spirit of wisdom and enlighten the eyes of our hearts so that we may know the hope to which you have called us and proclaim the good news of Christ's coming realm.

Day of Pentecost
Color: Red

Lectionary Readings

If Genesis 11 is chosen as the First Reading, Acts 2 should be used as the Second Reading.

Acts 2:1–21	On the day of Pentecost, God pours out the Spirit upon the earth.
or Genesis 11:1–9	At the tower of Babel, the Lord confuses the languages of the earth.
Psalm 104:24–34, 35b	The Lord of creation sends forth the Spirit to renew the earth.
Romans 8:14–17	In the Spirit, we are children of God and joint heirs with Christ.
or Acts 2:1–21	On the day of Pentecost, God pours out the Spirit upon the earth.
John 14:8–17 (25–27)	Jesus and the Father are one; the Father will send the Holy Spirit.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Your sons and daughters call to you, O God:

Pour out your Spirit on all flesh!

The young and old cry out together:

Pour out your Spirit on all flesh!

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Come, Holy Spirit!

Transform this humble gathering into the church of Jesus Christ—

people of dreams and visions, people of hope and witness,

people of love and service.

Burn away all that is false in us,

ignite in us a passion for the gospel,

and sweep us out into the world to love and serve the living God.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of everlasting life, we confess
that we continue in the ways of death.

We try to build towers to the heavens,
and ignore the plight of people on earth.

We sneer at the voices of prophets and squander the gifts of your Spirit.

Forgive us, God of grace.

Lead us, by your Holy Spirit,
to live as your beloved children,
those you have called and claimed;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Rejoicing in God's promise of new creation,
let us pray to the Maker of heaven and earth,
saying: God of new life, hear our prayer.

Pour out your Spirit on your people,
so that we may dream and prophesy, bearing witness to your saving love.

Scatter the plans of the proud and disrupt the schemes of the wicked.
Establish your reign of justice and peace.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Help us to listen with understanding to the voices of our neighbors,
so that we may learn to live as one.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Open your hand to those in need.
Breathe with mercy upon the broken.
Renew and restore their lives.
God of new life, hear our prayer.

Gracious God, keep us working and praying
for the coming of your holy realm of peace,
when we will share abundant life with you;
through Jesus Christ, our risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. In every age, you have anointed leaders with your Spirit.
Now all of your people—men and women, young and old—are empowered to speak your truth and show your glory.
2. Jesus has promised that you will abide with us forever through an Advocate, your Spirit of truth, the Holy Spirit.
That same Spirit has become our teacher, our hope, our peace.
3. By your Holy Spirit, accept us as your beloved children, joint heirs with Christ through his suffering and glory.
Help us to live not in fear, but in faith and freedom.

Trinity Sunday

Lectionary Readings

Proverbs 8:1–4, 22–31 Does not wisdom call? I was present at the beginning of creation.
Psalm 8 O Sovereign Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!
Romans 5:1–5 God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.
John 16:12–15 Jesus says: The Spirit will guide you; all that the Father has is mine.

CALL TO WORSHIP

The wisdom of God calls to us,
from the heights, along the paths,
and at the crossroads.

Come into God's presence to worship, sing, and pray.
From our scattered places we come.

Let us worship God.

OPENING PRAYER

Holy, holy, holy Lord—we praise the majesty and mystery of your threefold name.
Show your glorious presence,
speak your word of life,
and guide us into your truth,
so that all the world will know
that we are your people and you are our God.
In your holy name we pray.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of the prophets, we confess
that we have failed to heed your word.
You call out to us; you reach out to us,
yet we remain unresponsive and aloof.
You give us dominion over your works,
yet we waste and abuse your creation.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Open our eyes to see your handiwork.
Open our ears to receive your truth.
Open our hearts and hands to serve you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Holy God, One-in-Three and Three-in-One,
hear us as we pray for your blessing,
saying: Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for the church . . .
Help us to heed your call and follow your way.
Let us know your love and live into our faith,
laying our fears and failures in your hands.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for the world . . .
Where there is hatred and bloodshed,
fighting and mistrust, drought and disease,
give peace, reconciliation, and healing.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for this community . . .
Bless the neighbors who call this place home,
those beyond these walls who have no home,
and strangers, unknown to us but loved by you.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Be with those who are near and far away,
those who are facing new challenges in life,
and those who search for signs of hope.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

All this we ask of you, Lord God,
through Jesus Christ our Savior,
and in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You pour your love into our hearts and give us the eternal presence of your Holy Spirit.
All creation is infused with your energy, wisdom, and purpose.
2. Born in human likeness and found in human form,
Jesus lived a faithful life, guiding all who seek to follow him.
His death and resurrection display your power and might.
3. By the work of your Spirit, help us to know and live your truth.
Let good will and good news empower the church in the world.
Let the gifts of hope and peace flourish in your whole creation.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

hear us as we pray for your blessing,
saying: Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Wrap your arms around those in distress.
Give courage to those in need of hope.
Give healing to those who are facing illness.

In him, your forgiveness still flows with abundance.
3. Give us faith in the life and witness of your Son, so that Christ will live in us as we walk with you.
Let our actions express your good news to the world.

Lectionary Readings

Semicontinuous

1 Kings 19:1–4 (5–7) 8–15a Elijah meets God—not in wind, earthquake, or fire—but in silence.

Psalms 42 and 43 My soul longs for you, O God; where are you? My hope is in you.

Complementary

Isaiah 65:1–9 The Lord says: I will repay their iniquity, but I will not destroy them.

Psalm 22:19–28 The Lord did not despise or forsake me; I will praise the Lord.

Galatians 3:23–29 In Christ there is no Jew or Greek, slave or free, male and female.

Luke 8:26–39 Jesus casts out a man's demons and they enter a herd of swine.

CALL TO WORSHIP

When shall we behold the face of God?
Through earthquake, wind, and fire,
we listen for God's voice.

By day, God offers steadfast love.

By night, God's song is with us.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Sovereign God, you sent Jesus to deliver us from evil powers.
Drive out the demons that torment us
and set us free to worship you, giving you thanks and praise
for all that you have done for us;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of the prophets, we confess
that we have failed to heed your word.
You break down barriers among people,
but we separate ourselves from others.
You are ever faithful in your promise,
but we turn away from others in fear.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Stir up that still, small voice in us and speak to us through the silence with a message of hope and welcome;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Holy God, One-in-Three and Three-in-One,
hear us as we pray for your blessing,
saying: Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for the church . . .
Help us when we are feeling hopeless.
Raise us up to face the journey before us
as the body of Christ in the world.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for the world . . .
Stand with those who feel forgotten or alone.
Give refuge to those who have been cast aside.
Convert those whose gods are hate and fear.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for this community . . .
Let us be no longer divided by our race, our status, or our gender.
Unite us in compassion for one another.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Comfort those whose struggles and fears weigh heavily on our hearts this day.
Show them your healing and steadfast love.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

All this we ask of you, Lord God,
through Jesus Christ our Savior,
and in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You stand with the downtrodden, offering them strength.
You give a mission and purpose to your people.
You turn fear into hope by your very presence.
2. Jesus commanded demons and unclean spirits.
He was feared by those who did not understand him,
but embraced by those who knew what you could do for them.
3. By your Spirit, unite us in one covenant with you,
so that we may be counted as your children through faith, heirs to the promise you made with Abraham.

Still he invites us to follow him, and live in your kingdom.

showing joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Sing praise to God, O faithful ones.
Give thanks to God's holy name.
Hear us, O God; be gracious to us.
Our souls praise you, O Lord.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy One, through Jesus Christ
you have come to this house—
to proclaim good news,
to eat and drink with us,
to bless us with peace.
Equip us for your service and then send us out as laborers to share in Christ's mission, so that all may be gathered in at the harvest of your holy realm.
In Jesus' name we pray.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of the prophets, we confess
that we have failed to heed your word.
You summon us to follow your Spirit,
but we are stuck in our stubborn ways.

Make us faithful laborers in your harvest, provide what we need to do your work,
and send us out with a message of hope for all.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

We pray for the world . . .
Look with compassion and healing
at the pain and brokenness of our world.
Cover your creation with mercy and peace.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

As we remember and give thanks for the work and vision of our forebears, help us to seek justice and freedom for all.

Let your healing touch rest upon those who are struggling and suffering this day.
Restore their health and strength.
Holy, triune God, have mercy on us.

All this we ask of you, Lord God,
through Jesus Christ our Savior,
and in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. Your realm extends from Israel to every nation on earth.
You bless the work of the prophets who labor in your name.
You reach out with healing grace to strangers and friends.
2. Jesus came with power, authority, and peace.
He sends us into the world to proclaim your message:
The kingdom of God has come near.
3. Give us new life, so that we may no longer be bound by deception, corruption, and transgression, but follow your will, obey your rule, and seek your peace.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

General Use / Time after Pentecost

We believe that God brings justice to the oppressed and gives bread to the hungry.
We believe that God
frees the prisoner
and restores sight to the blind.
We believe that God
supports the downtrodden, protects the stranger,
helps orphans and widows,
and blocks the path of the ungodly.

Adapted from the Confession of Belbar

INVITATION TO OFFERING

At the communion table:

Jesus has taught us not to store up treasures for ourselves, but to be rich toward God—
for where our treasures are,
there will our hearts be also.
With gratitude for God's grace,
let us offer our lives to the Lord.
Luke 12:21, 34

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

At the communion table:

Generous God,
we bring you these gifts with gratitude
that we have such gifts to share.
May all that we share
be used for your glory,
and for the work of justice and peace,
compassion and joy,
in this community
and in your world. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

At the communion table:

Nourishing God, thank you for inviting us
to your table where all are welcome, and for feeding us with the bread of life
and quenching our thirst with the cup of blessing.
As you have filled our lives with love and hope,
may we be a source of your love and hope for others who hunger and thirst for good news. Amen.

BLESSING AND CHARGE

At the doors of the church:

The kingdom of God,
the power of Christ,
and the glory of the Spirit
be with you forever. Alleluia!
Luke 11:2

Go in peace to love the Lord your God and love your neighbor as yourself. Amen.

Semicontinuous

Hosea 11:1–11 When Israel was a child, I loved him; how could I give him up now?
Psalm 107:1–9, 43 Give thanks to the Lord, who gathers up and redeems the lost.

Complementary

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 12–14; What do mortals gain from their toil under the sun? All is vanity.
2:18–23
Psalm 49:1–12 The gift of life has no price; the great and the lowly will all perish.
Colossians 3:1–11 If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above.
Luke 12:13–21 Be on guard against greed; life does not come from your possessions.

CALL TO WORSHIP

If we have been raised with Jesus Christ,
then let us seek the things that are above.
If our lives are hidden in Jesus Christ,
then let us look for his glory to be revealed.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Generous God, by your mercy
you provide all that we really need.
Teach us not to store up treasures for ourselves on earth, but to put our trust and hope in the extravagance of your grace, so that we might come to inherit the abundant life you offer;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Faithful and loving God, we confess
that we have not lived in faith and love.
You offer us the gift of salvation,
but we spend our lives in vain pursuits.
You provide enough for all to share,
but we store up treasures for ourselves.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Teach us to seek the way of heaven and to let go of earthly desires so that we might have abundant life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses,
we pray for the fulfillment of God's promise,
saying: In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

We pray for the church . . .
Strip away our falsehood and evil
and clothe us with your loving-kindness,
a garment for the body of Christ.
In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

We pray for the world . . .
Show us the vanity of our ways,
toiling away for sinful, selfish gain.
Turn our hearts to seek the common good.
In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

We pray for this community . . .
Give shelter to refugees in our midst,
those fleeing from disaster, persecution, or war.
Help them find safety and peace among us.
In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Remember your beloved children
who are struggling and suffering this day.
Take them in your arms and heal them.
In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

Strengthen us to run the race that is before us,
laying aside the heavy burdens of sin and death
and following the pioneer and perfecter of our faith:
Jesus Christ, our crucified and risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You have loved us from the beginning, teaching us to live and walk in faith,
showing great compassion when we fall.
2. Through parables, Jesus has taught us not to store up worldly wealth for ourselves
but to trust in the generosity of God.
3. Set our minds on things that are above, where Christ is, seated at your right hand.
Let Christ Jesus be our all in all.

whose hope is in God's steadfast love.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Mighty and merciful God,
you lead us by your light and clothe us in your grace.
Teach our hearts to treasure
the way of life that you desire,
so that we might be ready for the one who is coming at an unexpected hour:
Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Faithful and loving God, we confess
that we have not lived in faith and love.
We offer you great pageants of piety
and ignore your call to do what is right.
We busy ourselves with idle pleasures and fail to prepare for your coming realm.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Give us the gift of faith,
so that we might set our hope
on the better things you have promised;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses,
we pray for the fulfillment of God's promise,
saying: In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

We pray for the church . . .
Help us to proclaim the mystery of faith,
our conviction in the gospel of Christ and our assurance of new life in him.
In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

Be the help and shield of those who suffer in famine or warfare.
Let your steadfast love be upon them.
In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

We pray for this community . . .
Teach us to do good, seek justice,
rescue the oppressed, defend the helpless,
and plead for those who are forsaken.
In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Watch over them with your loving eye to deliver them from trouble,
so that their hearts may rejoice in you.
In faith, O God, we seek your grace.

laying aside the heavy burdens of sin and death
and following the pioneer and perfecter of our faith:
Jesus Christ, our crucified and risen Lord. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. Through your prophets you have called us to do good, seek justice, and help the poor.
This is the kind of sacrifice you desire.
2. Jesus revealed the treasure of your holy realm and taught us to watch with expectation for his coming again at an unexpected hour.
3. Give us faith—the assurance of things hoped for,
the conviction of things yet unseen—
and make us ready for our heavenly home.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

General Use / Time after Pentecost

We believe that the church must witness against and strive against any form of injustice,
so that justice may roll down like waters,
and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.

We believe that the church
as the possession of God must stand where the Lord stands, namely against injustice
and with the wronged.

We believe that in following Christ

INVITATION TO OFFERING

At the communion table:

God has called us to do good,
to be rich in good works,
generous and ready to share.
With gratitude to the giver of life,
let us offer our lives to the Lord.
1 Timothy 6:13, 18

At the communion table:

God of all good gifts,
you bless us with so much to share.
Use the gift of our money
and the gifts of our lives
to bring your healing and hope, your justice and peace
to our neighbors, near and far. Amen.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

At the communion table:

God of grace, you invite us to your table and welcome us as part of your family.
You feed us with your body and satisfy our deepest hunger.
We thank you for these gifts.
Now send us out into the world
by the power of your Spirit that we may be your witnesses, sharing the life-giving news of the gospel. Amen.

BLESSING AND CHARGE

At the doors of the church:

The Lord bless and keep your going out and your coming in

Lectionary Readings

Semicontinuous

Jeremiah 1:4–10

Psalm 71:1–6

Complementary

Isaiah 58:9b–14

Psalm 103:1–8

Hebrews 12:18–29

Luke 13:10–17

The Lord calls young Jeremiah: Before you were born, I knew you.
In you, O Lord, I take refuge; upon you I have leaned from my birth.

Remove the yoke; help the poor; refrain from trampling the Sabbath.
Bless the Lord, O my soul; the Lord forgives, heals, and redeems.
Worship with reverence and awe; our God is a consuming fire.
Jesus heals a woman on the Sabbath; a synagogue leader objects.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us delight in God's gift of Sabbath;
let us honor the day of the Lord.
We delight in the God who sets us free;
we honor the Lord by doing justice.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Living God, as in Jesus Christ
you set us free from sin and death, help us to devote ourselves this day
to the healing and liberation of others so that all people may have the gift of fullness of life and peace in you;
through Jesus Christ, our Redeemer.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess
that we have not turned away from sin.
We dismiss the prophets you send and ignore your call to service.
We waste your gift of Sabbath and reject your offer of healing.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Let us approach you again with reverence and with awe, giving thanks for your saving love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the power of God to deliver us,
let us make our prayers of intercession for all,
saying: God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Let your church be a living sign of the kingdom that cannot be shaken, where we will worship you forever.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Be a rock of refuge and a strong fortress for those who are in trouble or distress.
Rescue the innocent from the wicked.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Teach us to offer our food to the hungry,
and provide for the needs of the afflicted
so that your light may shine in us.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Forgive their sins, heal their diseases,
bring them up out of their despair,
and satisfy them with your goodness.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Merciful and mighty God, as you are one,
make us one with you through Jesus Christ,
whom you have sent to redeem us,
and in whose holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You are the hope of the oppressed and the delight of all the faithful,
a spring of water in a dry and weary land.
2. Jesus healed the sick in the synagogue, showing us how your gift of sabbath is meant to set us free from suffering.
3. As we await your coming realm let us be completely consumed in our devotion and service to you.

Lectionary Readings

Semicontinuous

Jeremiah 2:4–13

Psalm 81:1, 10–16

The people are cracked cisterns; they forsake the fountain of life.
God laments: I deliver and feed you, but you do not listen to me.

Complementary

Proverbs 25:6–7

Psalm 112

Hebrews 13:1–8, 15–16

Luke 14:1, 7–14

Do not put yourself in the place of honor; wait for an invitation.
Happy and prosperous are those who give generously and trust God.
Show hospitality and share what you have; praise God through Jesus.
Jesus teaches lessons at a banquet: the humble will be exalted.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Do not neglect to show hospitality,
for there may be angels among us.
The exalted will be made humble,
and the humble will be exalted.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Most High God, as in Christ Jesus
you took a lowly place among us, let us lay aside pretense and privilege and seek out solidarity with the poor,
so that all the world will know that the crucified one is our Lord.
In the name above all names we pray.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess
that we have not turned away from sin.
We stake out positions of privilege and push aside the oppressed.
We seek the favor of the powerful and refuse to welcome the poor.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Show us your way of mutual love
and hospitality to all,
so that we may dwell in your house;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the power of God to deliver us,
let us make our prayers of intercession for all,
saying: God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Let our life together be a song of praise and an offering of great thanksgiving, bearing witness to Jesus Christ our Lord.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Show your faithfulness and love for nations and leaders that deal generously and conduct their affairs with justice.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Help us to love one another,
show hospitality to strangers,
and visit those who are in prison.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Strengthen those who are weak, deliver those who are in trouble,
and fill the hungry with good things.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Merciful and mighty God, as you are one,
make us one with you through Jesus Christ,
whom you have sent to redeem us,
and in whose holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You are exalted above the highest heavens, yet you chose to take a place among the lowly,
coming to dwell among us in Christ our Lord.
2. Jesus challenges our ideas and assumptions about what it means to have honor in your realm, exalting the humble and humbling the exalted.
3. Let our love for one another honor you—showing hospitality to strangers, visiting captives, living faithfully, and sharing with those in need.

Lectionary Readings

Semicontinuous

Jeremiah 4:11–12, 22–28 God warns that a fierce wind of judgment will lay waste to the land.
Psalm 14 Fools say there is no God; there is no one who does what is right.

Complementary

Exodus 32:7–14 Seeing the golden calf, God's wrath burns hot; but Moses intercedes.
Psalm 51:1–10 Have mercy, O God; I have sinned against you; wash me clean.
1 Timothy 1:12–17 Christ came to save sinners; God's grace has overflowed for me.
Luke 15:1–10 Jesus tells the parables of the lost sheep and the lost coin.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Like a woman who finds a missing coin,
God rejoices in our salvation.
Like a shepherd who finds a lost sheep,
God rejoices in bringing us home.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Merciful Savior, you sent Jesus to seek out those who are lost.
Receive us as we return to you this day,
then send us out to join your search,
so that we may rejoice with you and with all the company of heaven in the glory of your holy realm;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess
that we have not turned away from sin.
You search for us, like lost sheep,
but we pretend not to hear your voice.
You treasure us, like lost coins,
but we spend our lives in foolish ways.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Help us to repent and return to you,
so that we may join the joyful feast of redemption and restoration;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the power of God to deliver us,
let us make our prayers of intercession for all,
saying: God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Make us good shepherds for your sheep and good stewards of your gifts,
so that the lost may be found in you.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Look with mercy upon ruined lands, fields of desolation, cities of rubble.
Restore the glory of your good creation.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Strengthen us to serve you in this place, sharing the good news of your saving love with our friends, neighbors, and strangers.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
According to your steadfast love have mercy on those who are suffering.
Let them know joy and gladness again.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Merciful and mighty God, as you are one,
make us one with you through Jesus Christ,
whom you have sent to redeem us,
and in whose holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You are gracious and merciful, washing us clean from our sin
and delivering us from evil.
2. Jesus came to seek out the lost—eating with tax collectors and sinners, even dining with us at this table.
3. Through the love of Christ Jesus, let your grace overflow in our lives and strengthen us to serve you.

1 Timothy 2:1–7

Luke 16:1–13

The wealthy pursue their own interests and trample upon the poor.

Blessed be the name of the Lord, who raises the poor from the dust.

The story of a dishonest manager; you cannot serve God and wealth.

CALL TO WORSHIP

O people of God, praise the Lord!

Blessed is God's name forever.

From break of day to setting sun,

let us praise the name of the Lord.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Faithful God, through Jesus Christ
we have come to trust in you and rejoice that you call us your own.

Help us to be more faithful with the gifts you entrust to us, turning away from worldly wealth to worship and serve you alone.

This we pray in Jesus' name.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess

that we have not turned away from sin.

We seek our own self-interest
instead of serving others.

We glorify power and wealth instead of worshipping you.

Forgive us, God of grace.

Teach us to treasure your gifts and to seek the good of all,
so that we may be a blessing;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the power of God to deliver us,
let us make our prayers of intercession for all,
saying: God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Help us to proclaim the gospel message,
so that all will desire your saving love and come to the knowledge of your truth.

Heal the destruction of the land.
Put an end to war and violence.
Pour out your mercy and peace.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Deliver us from our evil ways—cheating the poor, ignoring injustice, exploiting those who are most vulnerable.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Look with kindness and compassion on all who look to you for help.
Raise them up from the dust of despair.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

make us one with you through Jesus Christ,
whom you have sent to redeem us,
and in whose holy name we pray. Amen.

You seek justice for the poor and oppressed and weep with those who are desolate.
2. Jesus has taught us to be faithful with the things that matter most—the treasures of your goodness and grace.
3. Keep us faithful in prayer and action, seeking righteousness and peace on earth,
so that all may know your saving love.

We praise the holy name of God.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy God, through Christ you came to heal our diseases and cleanse our sin.

Let our lives be signs of gratitude for the gift of your amazing grace, so that all the world might know
the good news of your saving love and the faith that makes us well.

This we pray in Jesus' name.

Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess
that we have not turned away from sin.

You offer us your grace,
but we fail to show our gratitude.

You heal us by your mercy,
but we fail to give you glory.

Forgive us, God of grace.

Strengthen us in faith,
so that we may be made well
and live to praise your name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the power of God to deliver us,
let us make our prayers of intercession for all,
saying: God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Help us to bear witness to the gospel:
the saving power of Christ at work among us and in all the world.

We pray for the world . . .
Be mindful of your gracious covenant.
Feed the hungry and redeem the captives.
Establish justice and righteousness on earth.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Let us build houses and live in them,
plant gardens and eat what they produce,
and seek the welfare of this place.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Heal those who are isolated by illness and restore them to our community,
so that we may give thanks together.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Merciful and mighty God, as you are one,
make us one with you through Jesus Christ,
whom you have sent to redeem us,
and in whose holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. Through the words of your prophets you bring hope and healing to all nations and show that your love knows no bounds.
2. Offering mercy to a Samaritan leper, Jesus demonstrated the gift of your grace and our calling to live in faith and gratitude.
3. Help us to remember, above all else, that Jesus Christ is risen from the dead and we are called to new life in him.

Amen. The Lord is with us!

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of lost and found,
as you came to live among us through Jesus, our Savior, come to this house of worship with the good news of salvation, so that we may rejoice this day
and praise your name forever;
in Christ's name we pray.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess
that we have not turned away from sin.
We follow the crowd around you but stand apart, keeping our distance.
We ask for your mercy and favor,
but begrudge your blessing to others.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Come to us and save us,
for without you, we are lost,
but in you, our lives are found;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the power of God to deliver us,
let us make our prayers of intercession for all,
saying: God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Let our faith in you and love for others continue to flourish and grow, bearing witness to your grace at work.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Look with mercy on this weary world,
full of trouble, violence, and destruction.
Let the day of salvation quickly come.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
Help us to rise above and look beyond the suspicions, fears, and prejudices that keep us separate from our neighbors.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Be a hiding place for those in distress.
Preserve them from their trouble and surround them with gladness and joy.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Merciful and mighty God, as you are one,
make us one with you through Jesus Christ,
whom you have sent to redeem us,
and in whose holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You make your word plain to us:
calling the wicked to turn from evil,
calling the righteous to live by faith.
2. Jesus has come to seek and save the lost.
Today we rejoice, for by his presence here,
salvation has come to this house.
3. Make us worthy of your calling, growing in faith, growing in love,
and giving glory to you above all.

Psalm 149	Praise the Lord in the assembly of the faithful; rejoice in God's glory.
Ephesians 1:11–23	In Christ we have received a glorious inheritance among the saints.
Luke 6:20–31	Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Praise the Lord, all you faithful people!
With all the saints, we sing God's praise.
By the grace of Christ, we are God's own.
With all the blessed ones, we rejoice.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God of the faithful in every age, show us what it truly means to be called "blessed"— suffering with the despised, weeping with the afflicted,
hungering for justice and peace,
desiring only your holy realm.
Teach us to love one another
even as you have loved us,
so that all may know your blessing;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess
that we have not turned away from sin.
We do not try to love our enemies or bless those who curse us.
We do not turn the other cheek or give to those in need.
Forgive us, God of grace.
Open our hearts to your way,
so that we might one day share
an inheritance among the saints;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Lectionary Readings

Jeremiah 23:1–6

Luke 1:68–79

or Psalm 46

Colossians 1:11–20

Luke 23:33–43

I will gather the remnant of my flock and raise up good shepherds.

Blessed be the Lord, who has raised up a savior for the people.

Though the earth changes and the waters roar, God is our refuge.

Christ is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

Crucified with Jesus, a criminal says: Remember me in your kingdom.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Blessed is the Lord our God, who has sent us a mighty Savior.
Blessed is the Lord Jesus Christ, who reigns in glory forever.

Let us worship God.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Jesus Christ, our Sovereign and Savior, you pour out your power for the powerless and your salvation for the lost.
Remember us in your new creation,
so that we may live in peace with you in the presence of the Holy One,
to whom be all honor and glory,
through you, in the Holy Spirit,
now and forever.
Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Sovereign God, we confess
that we have not turned away from sin.
You sent Jesus down to save us and we handed him over to die.
You lifted him up on the cross and still we mocked your holy realm.
Forgive us, God of grace.
We know not what we do.
Save us from our sin and death,
so that we may know true life in you;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Trusting in the power of God to deliver us,
let us make our prayers of intercession for all,
saying: God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the church . . .
Make us faithful in our witness to the promise of your coming reign,
so that all may know your glory and grace.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for the world . . .
Raise up good leaders among the nations, who seek justice and righteousness
and care for their people.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for this community . . .
By your tender mercy, O God,
give light to those who wait in darkness
and guide our feet in paths of peace.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

We pray for loved ones . . .
Give peace to those who are suffering and remember those who are dying.
Give them a place with you in paradise.
God our Savior, hear our prayer.

Merciful and mighty God, as you are one,
make us one with you through Jesus Christ,
whom you have sent to redeem us,
and in whose holy name we pray. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

1. You have raised up a mighty Savior for us from the house of your servant David to lead us in righteousness and peace.
2. Dying on a cross of shame,
Jesus rose again to reign in glory.
The crucified one is our living Lord.
3. Strengthen us in our hope and faith and hold us in the body of Christ,
the one in whom all things hold together.
