Cathy Chang and Juan Lopez

Serving Christ together in the Philippines

As Regional Facilitator for Addressing Migration and Human Trafficking, Cathy and Juan are walking alongside global partners in their efforts to address these issues. They are also collaborating with Asian churches and non-governmental organizations to assist with coordination efforts to end the scourge of modern-day slavery. They carry a deep concern for those whose hope for a better life for themselves and their families have been dashed by human traffickers. "I pray the Lord would lead and guide us as we address migration and human trafficking by participating in God's work to redeem economic systems of exploitation and exchange them for life-giving opportunities and education, while tending to the healing of peoples' bodies and spirits," Cathy says.
