Jim and Jodi McGill

Serving Christ together in Malawi

Jim coordinates the clean water and sanitation work of the Synod of Livingstonia, a regional body of the Church of Central Africa, Presbyterian. He works to ensure sustainability at the community level and to make sure that the church is a strong presence in Malawi's rural development. He also assists PC(USA) church partners with water and sanitation development in South Sudan and Congo. Jodi is the synod's coordinator for primary health care, working with a congregation-based malaria prevention program, HIV/AIDS prevention and care, and other public health programs. She also works as a clinical instructor at the Ekwendeni College of Nursing.
