OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.)

v.

Remedial Case 209-11

Presbytery of SAN FRANCISCO ) Respondent/Appellee )

This remedial case came before this Commission on February 9, 1997, on appeal by Steven Gunjak Lee from a decision of the Permanent Judicial Commission of the Synod of the Pacific in which his complaint was dismissed in recognition of an agreement between Complainant and Respondent. Based on the record before it, the General Assembly Permanent Judicial Commission finds that the appeal papers were not timely and properly filed because they were never filed with the Clerk of the Synod and they fail to state one or more of the grounds of appeal set forth in D-8.0105*. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the appeal be dismissed.

Stephen Taber, member of the Commission from the Presbytery of San Francisco, took no part in the deliberations or decision of the case. D-4.0400b.

Dated this 9th day of February, 1997.

*In adopting amendments to the Form of Government and Rules of Discipline, the 208th General Assembly (1996) affirmed this Commission's request that all cases filed before the adoption of the amendments be adjudicated in accordance with the Rules of Discipline then in effect. Therefore, we consider this case in accordance with the 1995-1996 version of the Rules of Discipline. All references in this decision shall be to the 1995-1996 Rules of Discipline.
